

Sir Colin Woods, and Lady Woods viewing the AFP display at the Royal Canberra Show.

The AFP won first prize for its exhibition at the recent Royal Canberra Show. The display, AFP's first show exhibit, featured aspects of counter-terrorist training, firearms and safety education, the traffic division and the protective service component.

Special displays of counterfeit money from the Currency Squad and equipment from the search-rescue and water police also proved popular attractions.

The most popular section of the display was the large Police motorcycle on which children (and adults) could sit and have a photograph taken. An old 1964 police Triumph was a favourite with the older members of the public, bringing back memories of by-gone days.

The exhibition was the culmination of months of hard work by members of the Safety Education unit, in particular Senior Constable Dave Neenan.

Over the three-day period of the Show, the display was manned by members of the Safety Education and Public Relations units who answered many questions about the new Force, its place in Australia policing and its recruitment.

Up there J J, Hinchley, Broomby, Curtis, Robbie and Powley . . . in there and fight!

See any familiar faces in this 'footy' photo? You should! These are members of the Eastlake Australian Rules Football 'A' Grade team of 1960. Is that any help? NO! Well, look at the smiling face, front row, extreme right. Assistant Commissioner Johnson. Also in the photograph are (l-r) Inspector Neil Hinchley (fourth from the end back row), Chief Superintendent Broomby (right end of back row), Station Sergeant Pat Robbie (third from right end of third row), Chief Inspector Curtis (end of third row in dark jacket). Also, in the centre of the photo is former A.C.T. Police Commissioner Powley.

This star-packed team held the title of undefeated Champions in 1960 and rumour has it that it was due mainly to the 'heavies' listed above.

A 'Pen Picture' published in the 1958 Canberra Football Record described Jack Johnson as 'the surprise packet of the season' and 'this fellow has been kept for the heavy end'.
