

En route to Timor-Leste

As this edition of Platypus Magazine goes to print, AFP members have been called to Timor-Leste in an advisory capacity. AFP Photographer Brian Hartigan was at Canberra International Airport as a contingent left for Dili on May 29.

Top: Members arrived at the airport around 6am to begin the journey to Dili via Darwin.
