

1995 Young Lawyer of the Year announced

Sharon Horgan of New South Wales is the 1995 Apple Computer Young Lawyer of the Year.

On the 27 September Sharon was presented with the award and the prize of an Apple Perform 580 computer during the Australian Legal Convention in Brisbane.

Law Council President, Stuart Fowler said Sharon's outstanding and continuous contribution to the legal profession and the community had won her the award.

Sharon was the driving force behind the publication of Super and You, a plain English superannuation guide, written and distributed by the NSW Young Lawyers Business Law Committee, superannuation subgroup. Winners of the 1995 Community Issues category of the Young Lawyer of the Year Awards, for its work with the publication Super and You.

Ten thousand copies of the publication have been circulated to consumers throughout Australia.

Balance is looking for your Reviews & Conference reports

If you would like to review any of the following:

Books
Restuarants
Fine Wines
Conferences

or anything you think would be of interest to our readers.

Please contact
Claire Manock on 815104

Supreme Court Library: CD-ROM Available

The Supreme Court library will be commencing subscriptions to a variety of CD-ROM products in the near future.

– CASEBASE is a case citator which enables users to search by case name, catchwords, judicially considered statutes and words and phrases. Data is indexed from a range of law reports and law journals.

– STATE UNREPORTED JUDGMENTS covers unreported judgments from the Supreme Courts of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Queensland, Western Australia and Tasmania. Data from the Australian Capital City and the Northern Territory should be included within 3-6 months.

The library has superseded issues of these disks for demonstration purposes available now. If you would like to see how they can help you, please phone the library for a demonstration on 995683. Initially these products will only be available in Darwin but this will be extended as the hardware becomes available in other locations.

Frieda Evans
Librarian

Attention!

Members of the Legal Profession Visiting Atlanta for the 1996 Olympic Games

If you are considering visiting Atlanta during the 1996 Olympics, the Atlanta Bar Association would like to know of your interest in participating in educational and social activities during your visit.

Please contact the Law Society to obtain a questionnaire to submit to the Atlanta Bar Association's Coordinating Committee for the Olympics.

The questionnaires should be returned to the Atlanta Bar Association by December 15, 1995.

The Atlanta Bar Association will use the information you provide to determine what activities and services may be of interest to lawyers and judges.

If you prefer, you can contact the Atlanta Bar Association direct (404) 521-0781 or facsimile at (404) 522-0269 for more information.

4 Sale

Facsimile machine with broadcast facilities

Due to a recent upgrade of its facsimile requirements The Law Society of the Northern Territory has for sale a Pitney Bowes Model No 9200F facsimile machine with a Pitney Bowes 9200LP plain paper laser printer.

This unit is in full working order and is approximately three years old. It has memory facility for 99 facsimile numbers and also 24 grouped broadcast numbers. Manuals are included. Please contact The Law Society for further details on 81 5104.