Law Society Members

Keep your colleagues informed

Balance invites you to submit any items of interest for publication on the Law Society page. This includes movements of practitioners, changes in office structures, meetings and in fact anything you would like the profession to be aware of.

Bottle of wine up for grabs

Contributions to Balance may be made in the form of an article, feature or Letter to the Editor.

Every contribution will be considered for publication and in addition, the best article, feature or Letter to the Editor of each month will receive a free bottle of wine courtesy of:

CLE

Advance Notice

Ms Andrea McCallum, Senior Case Manager for the National Native Tribunal will give a CLE presentation on:

Thursday 17 October

Details of Ms McCallum's talk will be distributed as they come to hand.

What Would You Like to Know?

The Law Society welcomes your suggestions for future CLEs.

Which areas are of interest to you? Are you aware of speakers who would be appropriate? Could you share your own area of expertise with the profession?

You are invited to contact the Society with any thoughts you have on the CLE program.

Make a Wish Foundation

Business Cards

The Children's Make a Wish Foundation is working to make the wish of 7 year old Craig Serford come true.

Craig has terminal cancer, and it is his wish to be included in the Guinness Book of Records for the most business cards collected by one person.

To help Craig realise his dream, you are invited to send your business card to:
