Law Ball

Keep this date Free

Hot on the heels of the Law Week lunch, comes the The Mask Ball. Plans are underway to organise a ball, with the Terrace outside the Speaker's Office at Parliament House to be the venue.

The date for this function will be:

Saturday July 13

Again, our Parliament House will provide a stunning setting for the occasion and dress will be "come as who you'd like to be" with apologies to Jim Carey.

Any members with views on how this potentially thrilling function should be organised or with any good oil on ball organisation are invited to contact the Law Society.

Members Services

1996/97

Membership Renewal

All members of the Society are reminded that their current membership is due to expire on the 30 June 1996.

The Law Society is in the process of sending out Membership forms for 1996/97 to members of the profession.

The Society is very keen in improving the range of discounts that can be made available to members of the Society. The Member Services Officer, Janet Neville, would like to hear from Members as to what they would like to see included in their Membership Discount package, and requests that members feel free to donate any thoughts or wishes in this area.

For further information or to tender or ideas on our discount package please contact the Society on 8981 5104.

Who's What Where?

Movements at the Station

William Forster Chambers announce that Judith Kelly joined Chambers on 1 May 1996.

Before practising at the independent bar, Judith was a partner of Morris, Cross & Fletcher Darwin, subsequently Philip & Mitros, then Clayton Utz.

We need to know where you are

The Law Society requests that all practitioners inform them of changes of work place.

The Society is often required to pass on information to practitioners and needs to keep an up-to-date database of this information.

We would also ask that where a practitioner has moved to another firm or department that previous employers take on reasonable responsibility for forwarding their mail where a new address is known.

Thank you
