

1997 SEMINAR SERIES

The Faculty of Law would like to invite members of the legal profession, as well as staff and students at the NTU and interested members of the general community to attend the 1997 seminar series.

The seminars will be held on Wednesday of each week at 1.00pm for 12 weeks, commencing 27 August 1997.

The venue for each seminar is either (1) NTU: Faculty of Law Staff Library or (2) Darwin city at the Supreme Court. There is no charge for the seminars. Enquiries to Martin Flynn at the Faculty of Law tel: 8946 6837.

DATE	TOPIC & PRESENTER	VENUE
10 Sept	Law & Ecology: How changing perceptions of nature have influenced environmental law in the Northern Territory. Freya Dawson, Lecturer, Faculty of Law	Darwin city*
17 Sept	Music and the Law J Neville Turner, Visiting Lecturer, Faculty of Law	NTU
24 Sept	Exploring Individual Rights: the High Court decision in Kruger and Bray Sue Oliver, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Law	Darwin city*
1 Oct	Remedies in Tort for Survivors of Domestic Violence Fiona Hussin, Lecturer, Faculty of Law	NTU
8 Oct	The Stolen Generations Matthew Storey, Adjunct Lecturer, Faculty of Law	NTU
15 Oct	The Malaysian Judiciary: A crisis in confidence? Professor Jesse Wu, Centre for Southeast Asian Law	NTU
22 Oct	The Rise and Rise of ADR Professor Ned Aughterson, Faculty of Law	Darwin city*
29 Oct	Lying in Wait: International law on land mines Rebecca Laforgia, Lecturer, Faculty of Law	NTU
5 Nov	Current Issues in Criminal Responsibility Jenny Blokland, Dean, Faculty of Law	Darwin city*
12 Nov	The Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cwth) and the Criminal Law of the NT Martin Flynn, Lecturer, Faculty of Law	NTU
19 Nov	Women, Equality and Customary Law: the experience of Africa and the South Pacific Ken Brown, postgraduate student, Faculty of Law	NTU

VENUES:

*Darwin city – Jury Muster Room, Supreme Court

 NTU – Faculty of Law Staff Library, second floor, Arts/Law Building (No. 39)