

“Oh No,
not a bill of costs...”

Ward Keller are offering Northern Territory solicitors the services of their trained legal costing staff.

We understand the demands on your time and resources required to cost a file and our service can take the tedium out of this unpopular aspect of your practice.

We can provide for your convenience the following services:

- ⊗ preparation of Bills of Costs for Taxation;
- ⊗ preparation of Notices of Objection to other parties' Bills of Costs;
- ⊗ attendance at taxations of costs;
- ⊗ practical and sound advice on any aspect of the law and practice of legal costing in the Northern Territory.

Ward Keller guarantee that your files will be under the care of our team of skilled legal costing clerks supervised by Ward Keller principal John Neill.

To find out more about this new service and our cost effective rates, contact Jenny van der Walt, our Senior Legal Costing Clerk.

1999 Human Rights Medals and Awards

The prestigious Human Rights Medals and Awards recognise outstanding contributions of individuals to creating a fair and just Australia through the advancement of the rights of all people.

The Law Council of Australia has sponsored a new category of award, the Law Award, to be awarded to an individual or organisation for the promotion and advancement of human rights in Australia through the practice of law.

Recipients of the Medals and Awards have included Fred Hollows, the late Eddie Mabo, Elizabeth Evatt, Vivi Germanous-Koutsounadis and Michael Kirby.

The Medal and Awards categories provide for self-nomination or for the nomination of another person.

Nominations in all categories close on Friday 26 September, 1999.

Nomination forms, background notes and further information can be obtained from the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission website at:
