

“The Crucible” Play Reading

“The Crucible” Play Reading on 28 May at the Old Town Hall Ruins was one of the more popular Law Week events.

Around 80 people attended the Play Reading, which was directed by Darwin Theatre Company Artistic Director, John du Feu.

The Law Society is appreciative of the contributions of members of the legal profession who volunteered to be involved in this event, which was one of the more time consuming events to organise. A special thanks must go to Darwin Theatre Company, particularly John du Feu, for volunteering their time and directing skills.

Members of the legal profession who participated included Tamlyn Leahy, Rosemary Jacob, Lyn Bennett, Leonique Swart, Mark

Hunter and Donna Ward. They were joined by a number of professional actors.

The Law Society hopes that another legal themed play can be produced for Law Week 2009 in conjunction with Darwin Theatre Company, and we are open to any suggestions regarding the play. Please contact publicrelations@lawsocnt.asn.au with suggestions.

Donna Ward and Lyn Bennett in “The Crucible”

The Old Town Hall Ruins was a spectacular setting

The cast of “The Crucible” perform at the Old Town Hall Ruins