It has just been announced that the former Leader of the Opposition and Shadow Attorney-General Ms Jodeen Carney, will be chairing a review of the Youth Justice Act

The alcohol reforms are one of the most significant responses to the problems being experienced.

Members of the Society, whether prosecutors with the DPPs, practitioners of NTLAC, CAALAS and NAAJA, court officers, lawyers with the various Community Legal Centres including domestic violence and womens legal services, barristers, private practitioners in the Family Matters Court, policy officers in the Department of Justice and other departments, practitioners dealing with complex Aboriginal land and native title issues, and Parliamentary Counsel all put a lot of effort in responding to the various matters. Their numerous roles are very important and whilst some social commentators downplay the role of the profession, it is crucial in dealing with the many complex, and often very sad situations that have arisen and providing a way ahead. Similar comments could be made about our Magistracy and Judiciary.

The level of expertise of these people, and commitment is significant.

The Late David Farquhar

The Late David Farquhar, who recently passed away and who features in this edition of Balance exemplified these qualities - and who had a very varied and eminent career in the Territory extending into almost an amazing variety of areas.

The Society worked with him, and we even had some disagreements, over a number of years, but there are few practitioners who have given more back to their colleagues and the Territory community. The tributes from a wide variety of colleagues and others truly reflected his standing. Like many of my friends and colleagues I will miss his cuddles and wise counsel and friendship. ●

NORTHERN TERRITORY YOUNG LAWYERS

A Goodbye from the Past Presidents:

From the 2010 Co-Presidents, Nick Johansen and Donna Storey, a big thanks go to the 2010 committee for their hard work and commitment. We hope that Northern Territory Young Lawyers will continue to build up the young lawyer network, develop new ideas to keep young lawyers in the Territory engaged with the profession, and perhaps have a little fun along the way!

Hello from the new Presidents:

We are very excited to take the reins from Donna and Nick and thank them for their hard work and dedication to NTYL. Thankfully, both of them are still on the committee in 2011 and will continue to contribute. Emma Farnell from Ward Keller is now

Vice President and Imogen Taylor from DPP has maintained her role as Secretary, which is fantastic! Thanks also to Elise Rivett who continues to be our Alice Springs representative - we hope to get the Alice crew more involved through Elise's involvement.

We would like to take this opportunity to encourage young lawyers in the Territory to become a part of the NTYL network. This year, our main focus is to support young lawyers and make them feel welcome in the Territory. NTYL will be setting up a mentoring program in conjunction with the Law Society and will be including Alice Spring's practitioners in this. We also hope to get young lawyers involved in the community, namely through Red Cross initiatives and the International Humanitarian Law Committee, which now has a Northern Territory chapter.

Most importantly, it's about getting together and having a few drinks so please come along to our events. We would also encourage you to come to our meetings and get involved – we could use the extra hands and the more the merrier!

See you all at the Law Week events! There are ample opportunities to get socially involved in the Territory legal profession over the next couple of months!
