

Joining the Conversation

*Suzie Simmons,
Public Relations Officer,
Law Society Northern Territory*

The Law Society has taken flight into the world of social media by adding a Facebook page and Twitter account to its nest of tools for communicating with its members, the profession and the wider global flock.

A number of law societies have of late ventured into Twitterverse, however, we are proud to announce that we are only the second Australian law society to embrace Facebook.

The Facebook page already contains images from events held over the past 12 months, and will be used to provide you with up-to-date information of activities and events as they arise.

Hyperlinks to both sites may be found at the bottom of the Society's website homepage. Whilst still a fledgling at this stage, we will spread our wings and fly the nest over the coming months; and we hope that you will be able to join us on our migration. ●
