Web Resources

The NTRU has developed a number of on-line resource pages which provide relevant and up to date information regarding specific native title cases and concerns. These pages can be accessed from http://www.aiatsis.gov.au/rsrch/ntru/news_and_notes/

At present there are five resource pages:

- Authenticity and Tradition – The Yorta Yorta Case
- The concept of native title – Miriwung-Gajerrong Determination High Court 8 August 2002
- Compensation and native title
- Sea Rights – The Croker Island Decision and Native Title Offshore
- General native title resources

Papers from the AIATSIS seminar series Limits and Possibilities of a Treaty Process in Australia are also available on-line. This series explores issues surrounding the proposal for a national treaty, such as current proposals, past obstacles, Indigenous representation, political and philosophical questions, national identity, reconciliation, belonging, public law implications, and comparisons with other countries. The papers are at, <http://www.aiatsis.gov.au/rsrch/seminars.htm>

ABOUT THE NATIVE TITLE RESEARCH UNIT

The Native Title Research Unit identifies pressing research needs arising from the recognition of native title, conducts relevant research projects to address these needs, and disseminates the results of this research. In particular, we publish this newsletter, the Issues Papers series and publications arising from research projects. The NTRU organises and participates in conferences, seminars and workshops on native title and social justice matters. We aim to maintain research links with others working in the field.

The NTRU also fields requests for library searches and materials from the AIATSIS collections for clients involved in native title claims and assists the Institute Library in maintaining collections on native title.

AIATSIS acknowledges the funding support of the ATSIC Native Title and Land Rights Centre.
