

Native Title Conference 2010

People, Place, Power

1–3 June, National Convention Centre, Canberra

CALL FOR PAPERS

This year the Annual National Native Title Conference will be co-convened by the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS) and the National Native Title Council (NNTC). The conference themes reflect the fact that this year's conference occurs in the national capital, the traditional country of the Ngunnawal peoples, but also a place where significant native title decisions have been made. The title People, Place, Power is reflected in the following themes:

People

- The legacy of native title for future generations
- Land justice and social and emotional wellbeing
- Human rights and racial discrimination
- Women and native title

Place

- Governing native title land - roles and responsibilities of PBCs
- Land, water, heritage, country
- Environment, conservation and joint management
- Housing, tenure and community development

Power

- The national policy framework and the proposed National Partnership Agreement
- Economic development and native title payments
- Broader land settlements and native title agreements
- Reforms to the Native Title Act

Proposals for papers and panels are invited for consideration by the conference conveners. Please submit your proposal with an abstract and biographies, by Wednesday 31 March 2010.
