Kuring-gai College of Advanced Education ETON ROAD, LINDFIELD

Kuring-gai College of Advanced Education is a modern centre of higher education and community activity, offering a wide range of courses through the Schools of Financial and Administrative Studies, Library and Information Studies, Teacher Education, Recreation and Community Studies and Practical Legal Training. The total student population is 3,000. Applications are invited for the following position.

PRINCIPAL LECTURER LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

The College wishes to appoint a Principal Lecturer in Library and Information Science within the Department of Library and Information Studies. This Department provides the major part of all programmes offered by the School of Library and Information Studies, namely, Bachelor of Arts (Library Science), a three year degree programme, Graduate Diploma in Library Science and Graduate Diploma in Teacher Librarianship, both one year post-graduate diplomas.

The School of Library and Information Studies is presently considering the introduction of further programmes in Library and Information Studies at the graduate specialist diploma level and the Masters level. The Department of Library and Information Studies would have considerable input to these programmes and the Principal Lecturer would likewise.

The Department is presently organised academically in three areas of Information Users, Information Resources and Information Methods, each with a Subject Director. At present a Chairman is elected by teaching staff of the three areas to act as an administrative co-ordinator for the Department.

The successful applicant for the position of Principal Lecturer will be responsible for providing academic leadership for the integrated development of subjects offered within the Department of Library and Information Studies and would be expected to contribute to the teaching of the subjects offered within this Department.

Applicants should possess a strong disciplinary background evidenced by higher degree qualifications, publications, an established research capacity, relevant professional experience, considerable experience in teaching at the tertiary level and the capacity to provide educational leadership.

The appointment will be made at one of the following salary levels:

Principal Lecturer I	$29,012 per annum
Principal Lecturer II	$30,192 per annum
Principal Lecturer III	$31,369 per annum

Attractive housing loans and housing schemes are available for tenured staff. In addition fares for an interstate appointee will be met and a contribution made towards removal expenses.

Initial enquiries may be directed to the Head of the School of Library and Information Studies, Mrs M. Trask on (02) 467 9250.

Applications in writing for the position giving personal details, including telephone numbers during business hours, details of qualifications and experience and the names and addresses of two referees should be forwarded to the Secretary, Kuring-gai College of Advanced Education, P.O. Box 222, Lindfield, N.S.W., 2070, by 28th November, 1980.
