The University of Adelaide

invites applications from both women and men for the following position:

BIBLIOGRAPHIC SERVICES LIBRARIAN (Librarian Grade IV)

(Ref: 1870) in the Barr Smith Library, Technical Services Division, which has a staff of fifty-three. The appointee will be responsible to the Technical Services Librarian for the management of bibliographic services and for the provision, development and maintenance of the Library's on-line bibliographic database and associated services. The successful applicant will act for the Technical Services Librarian as required.

The Library has collected in excess of 1.3 million volumes, of which some 200,000 are in storage. Continuing transfers to the Joint Universities Store at Flinders University are expected to be routine for the foreseeable future. The present rate of accession is some 16,000 monograph titles per year, while current serial titles number 13,000.

The Barr Smith Library is a participant in the Australian Bibliographic Network. Its interface, BIBLION, has been developed to provide on-line public access, cataloguing, circulation and reserve processing systems. Acquisition is not automated. The retrospective conversion of records for the card catalogues is expected to be completed in 1988, providing a total file of approximately 550,000 records of which 80% will be at ABN full record standard. The Library is at present seeking to acquire a fully integrated automated system. The appointee will be expected to make a significant contribution to the planning for and installation of the new system.

Further details about the duties of the position may be obtained from the Technical Services Librarian, Barr Smith Library, (08) 228 5223.

Qualifications and Experience:

Applicants must hold a degree from a recognised tertiary institution and in addition a recognised postgraduate qualification in librarianship or be eligible for professional membership of the Library Association of Australia. Relevant library experience at a senior level, preferably in an academic or research library, is required.

Salary:

Librarian Grade IV: $38,265 x 3 - $42,910 per annum.

Information about terms and conditions of employment for all positions may be obtained from the Senior Assistant Registrar (Personnel).

Applications, in Duplicate quoting reference number 1870 and giving full personal particulars (including whether candidates hold Australian permanent residency status), details of educational qualifications, current salary and names and addresses of three referees should reach the Senior Assistant Registrar (Personnel), The Registry, University of Adelaide, GPO Box 498, Adelaide, SA 5001 no later than 22 June 1987.

The University reserves the right not to make an offer of employment and to make enquiries of any person regarding any applicant's suitability for employment.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

IFLA 88 Budget Update

run at an all-up cost of $420,000 in 1987 dollars. This includes: $145,500 for conference planning and organisation; $78,500 for printing and duplicating; $9,800 for conference kits, satchels, etc. $67,000 for interpretation and other program-related meeting expenses; $72,000 for receptions, tours and hospitality, and $42,000 for general expenses, including insurance, publicity, office supplies and services etc.

As for income, we expect to benefit from the low value of the Australian dollar, to the extent that any overseas visitors will be pleasantly surprised by the low cost of travelling in Australia. By the same token each overseas visitor's enrolment fee, set by IFLA at a limit of $US275, will return approximately $400 Australian to conference funds. Of course we are anxious to have a really good attendance by Australian librarians. Given that, and a modest amount of sponsorship, which the Sponsorship Committee is working hard to attract and which at this stage seems very achievable, we have no doubt that the money required to pay for the Conference in full, will be raised without the need for any form of subsidisation from the Association's general funds.

Certainly, if over the next 12 months the situation changes and a real concern about our ability to cover the costs of the Conference should arise, we will promptly report back to the members. In the meantime the one certain way to ensure the success of IFLA '88, including its financial success, is for all members of the Association to get behind it! Start by deciding that Sydney is the place to be in August/September 1988 and begin to save your dollars to make sure that you will be there!

Hans W. Groenewegen
Conference Treasurer.

Conferences Coming up - Partners in adult learning

Participants will explore the community role of libraries, adult education providers and other local adult learning resources; learning needs of special groups such as housebound people and migrants and women; technology and its effects on adult learning needs and opportunities.

Guest speaker will be John Ohliger of Basic Choices, Inc., Madison, Wisconsin, who has over 40 years' experience as an influential teacher, social critic, bibliographer and library-based learner/independent scholar working in both mainstream and alternative education.

John Ohliger helped pioneer US lifelong education philosophy and legislation, and created a clearing house on social issues and education. He leads the struggle in the US against mandatory continuing education for professionals, and provokes lively debate on information and information technology.

John's published bibliographies and writings are characteristically extensively researched, irreverent, humorous and provocative. Titles include: 'Is lifelong adult education a guarantee of permanent inadequacy?'; 'The Tao of learning'; 'Is J. Edgar Hoover a virgin?'; and 'Radical ideas in adult education'.

Watch InCite for further information on the Conference. Application forms will be distributed soon. Contact Marian Letcher, Carngbush Library, 425 Church St, Richmond, Victoria 3121, (03) 429-3644, or Peter Fraser, Council of Adult Education, 256 Flinders St, Melbourne, (03) 652-0694.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW SOUTH WALES

LIBRARIANSHIP

Lecturer/
Senior Lecturer
(Tenured or Tenurable Appointment)

(Ref. 1030)

Applications are invited for the position of Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Information Science. The School wishes to strengthen its research and teaching programs in information science. The appointee's teaching and research responsibilities will fall in one or more of the following areas: conceptual foundations of information science, theories and techniques in information storage and retrieval, automated library and information processing systems, library and information networks and computer programming.

The School offers a Graduate Diploma in Information Management, and the degrees of master of Librarianship (by coursework) in Information Science and in Library Management, Master of Librarianship (by research) and Master of Archives Administration (by research). The School is presently reviewing the structure and content of these programs. The School also offers the Ph.D. degree. The appointee should have or be completing a relevant doctoral degree or give other evidence of ability to undertake research in the field. Relevant experience in teaching and/or the information industry would be advantageous.
