The Australian Constitution

Geoffrey Sawer

A fascinating history of the forging of a nation - the founding of a nation and constitutional government in Australia - by the nation's most eminent constitutional lawyer, Geoffrey Sawer.

Troubled beginnings of the federation movement spearheaded by Henry Parkes and Samuel Griffith; the fierce campaign fought in favour of and against federation; the proclamation, application and amendment of the Constitution; the documents themselves, and the personalities who played leading roles - all are covered in this major volume. Essential reading as well as bookshelf reference for all Australians.

Illustrated throughout.

Who's who in government?

The Commonwealth Government Directory

Whether you work in government or not, it can be difficult and at times almost impossible to find out who's who and where they are. The Commonwealth Government Directory is the official guide to the organisation and personnel of the Commonwealth government departments and agencies. Entries include the address, telephone, telegram, telex and fax numbers, together with details of senior personnel.
