INDUSTRIAL NEWS

LINOS Project

During July, the project team for the Learning and Information Needs of Schools (LINOS) project completed the penultimate draft of the document and circulated it to the steering committee members, and others, including nominees in the Departments of Education not represented on the committee. The steering committee met on 4 August 1988.

National Review of Labour Markets

The National Review of Local Government Labour Markets has released its Discussion Paper no. 6, Equal Employment Opportunities and Local Government in Australia: an overview. Copies of this document have been circulated to the Secretaries of LAA Public Libraries Section Groups. Additional copies may be obtained from Louise Lansley at LAA Head Office, 376 Jones Street, Ultimo, NSW 2007.

Industrial Forum 88

Jenny Doran, ACTU Industrial Officer, will give the opening address at 'Industrial Forum 88' which will be held at Queens College, Melbourne University on 17-18 November 1988. Jenny will speak about developments in Australian industrial relations including the new wage fixing principles, the likely effects of the new Federal industrial relations legislation, the trend towards union amalgamations, and progress in achieving higher wages for workers in female dominated professions. The forum will also include speakers from the major unions representing library staff in Australia. Booking forms were included in InCite no. 15, 3 September. If you did not receive yours please, contact Louise Lansley at LAA Head Office.
