

Oliver Mann, Research Resources Librarian at the Northern Territory University, has been awarded a Research Fellowship for 10 months in 1994 to study Australian-Southeast Asian relations at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies in Singapore.

Oliver's work will enhance the international relations aspect of the Library's online INTAN MAS database on North Australia, Eastern Indonesia, and Australia's relations with Indonesia, ASEAN member nations, and with the nine Indonesian provinces east of Bali. This Fellowship shows the strength of NTU's developing links with SE Asian research institutions.

Glenn Sanders has recently been appointed as Series Editor for the ALIA Press Public Libraries Series. Glenn is a Director of Sanders Information Management Services and has had wide experience in consulting to local government on public libraries, particularly on technology and records management.

Ian Duncan has recently taken up his position as Law Librarian at Macquarie University Library. Ian was previously Social Sciences Librarian at Fisher Library, University of Sydney.

It's great in these difficult times to hear of a new graduate getting a really good break in a first job. Sometimes experience over and beyond the degree course can raise the potential and open a door. This happened for Francoise Rodrigue with Baker & Taylor. She has recently taken up the position of Library Services Administrator at the B & T South Pacific office. Her work in a sales-related area during her university studies, along with training in Information Management-Librarianship were the strengths which enabled her to become part of the team at B & T.

Michele Burton has taken two years leave of absence from her position as Library Manager, Australian Film, Television and Radio School to become Head of the Singapore Broadcasting Corporation's Library. She will be responsible for the integration, overall planning and management of the Corporation's 10 multi-media libraries into a 'one-stop' broadcasting resource centre. It is envisaged the new structure will provide Asia's major broadcasting information service.

inCite deadlines for the start of 1994

Issue	Copy	Ads	Events	ALLAppointments	Cover date
1	6 Jan	11 Jan	14 Jan	25 Jan	4 Feb
2	3 Feb	8 Feb	11 Feb	22 Feb	4 Mar
3	3 Mar	8 Mar	11 Mar	22 Mar	1 Apr

The days on which deadlines fall in 1994 have changed, but the intervals between the key dates for each issue are the same as in previous years.

These intervals are the minimum we can possibly set: each successive production step is large out of our control.

The cover dates for all issues hinge around the ALIA Constitution's requirements to give notice to members before the 'Call for Nominations' and the Council elections; this 'locks in' issue 9's cover date.

All other issues, both before and after, are then calculated to give regular four-weekly intervals between issues throughout inCites' year.
