OUTSTANDING STUDENT

Kathleen Ichalallene has received the ALIA student award as the highest achieving student in the Diploma of Library and Information Services at Box Hill Institute.

Kathleen came to Box Hill Institute after returning from Singapore, where she was volunteering at her children's school. During her course, Kathleen worked at the Melbourne Cricket Club library and at Ruyton School Library. She has since worked at another senior school library and is planning to return to Box Hill Institute to undertake the degree program. Kathleen's ambition is to work in collection management or archiving.

BELOW: Outstanding: Kathleen Ichalallene.
