

Principal Act by section twenty-five of this Act, shall not be payable in respect of any period prior to the date of receipt by the Repatriation Commission of the application for the pension, but, where the application is lodged on or before the second day of February, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-one, and the marriage or birth on which the claim for pension is based took place before the second day of November, One thousand nine hundred and fifty, the pension may be granted as from the last-mentioned date.

Allowances to certain persons.

61. If the rate of pension payable to a person under sub-section (1B.) of section thirty-five of the Australian Soldiers' Repatriation Act 1920-1950 is less than the rate of pension payable under the Australian Soldiers' Repatriation Act 1920-1949 immediately prior to the commencement of that sub-section, an allowance equal to the amount of the difference shall be payable to that person.

Adjustment of certain payments to wives of certain members of the Forces.

62. Where, after the second day of November, One thousand nine hundred and fifty, an allowance has been paid under regulation one hundred and ninety-five of the Australian Soldiers' Repatriation Regulations in respect of the wife of—

(a) a totally and permanently incapacitated member of the Forces ;

(b) a blinded member of the Forces ; or

(c) a member of the Forces in receipt of an amount in respect of a disability described in any of the first eight items in the first column of the Fifth Schedule to the Principal Act, the rate of pension payable to that wife under the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, in respect of any period during which that allowance is, or has been, paid after that date shall not exceed the difference between the rate of the allowance and the rate of the pension prescribed by the Principal Act, as so amended.
