the Minister may withhold the whole or any part of the bounty payable.

“(3.) All the provisions of the Excise Procedure Act 1907 and of any regulations made thereunder shall apply in relation to any application under paragraph (c) of the last preceding sub-section as if the application were an application as defined in that Act, and the application shall, for the purposes of that Act, be deemed to be an application under that Act :

Provided that section four of that Act shall be read as if the words ‘claimant for bounty’ were substituted for the word ‘applicant’.”

EXCISE (SUGAR).

No. 17 of 1910.

An Act to amend the Excise Tariff 1905.

[Assented to 25th October, 1910.]

BE it enacted by the King’s Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate, and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Excise (Sugar) Act 1910.

2. Section two of the Excise Tariff 1905 is amended—

(a) by omitting therefrom the words “until the first day of January One thousand nine hundred and thirteen” ;
and

(b) by omitting therefrom the following proviso :—

“Provided further that the duty of excise payable on sugar produced from cane delivered for manufacture in the years One thousand nine hundred and eleven and One thousand nine hundred and twelve shall be respectively two-thirds and one-third of the aforesaid rate.”

Amendment of s. 2 by omitting sliding scale.
