PART III.—MATERNITY ALLOWANCES.

Citation.

10.—(1.) The *Maternity Allowance Act 1912-1932 is in this Part referred to as the Principal Act.

(2.) The Principal Act, as amended by this Part, may be cited as the Maternity Allowance Act 1912-1934.

Grant of maternity allowance.

11. Section four of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sub-sections:—

“(2.) Where a woman, to whom an allowance becomes payable under the preceding provisions of this section in respect of a birth, is the mother of one or more children under the age of fourteen years born prior to that birth, there shall be payable to that woman out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is hereby appropriated accordingly, an additional allowance of Five shillings in respect of each such child living at the date of that birth, but so that the total amount payable under this section to any woman at any one time shall not exceed Five pounds.

“(3.) An allowance payable under the last preceding sub-section shall, except for the purposes of section five of this Act, be deemed to be a maternity allowance within the meaning of this Act.”

Who may be claimants.

12. Section six of the Principal Act is amended by omitting sub-sections (3.) and (4.) and inserting in their stead the following sub-sections:—

“(3.) A maternity allowance shall not be payable unless the claimant produces evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner that the total income of the claimant and her husband (or, in the case of a posthumous or ex-nuptial child, that the total income of the claimant) for the period of twelve months preceding the date of the birth of the child to which the claim relates did not exceed—

(a) in any case where the claimant had no other children—
Two hundred and eight pounds;

(b) in any case where the claimant had other children—Two hundred and eight pounds and, in addition, in respect of each of those other children, Thirteen pounds, but not in any case exceeding, in the aggregate, Two hundred and ninety-nine pounds:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent the payment of maternity allowance in any case in which the Commissioner is satisfied that, at the time of the birth, the claimant and her husband or the claimant (as the case may be) were not, or was not, in receipt of income exceeding the rate which is, under the foregoing provisions of this sub-section, the limit of income applicable to that case, and that the non-receipt of income at that rate was not a casual or temporary circumstance.

"(4.) For the purposes of the last preceding sub-section—

- (a) 'children' means children, of whom the claimant is the mother, who are under the age of fourteen years and living at the date of the birth to which the claim relates; and
- (b) 'income' includes any moneys, valuable consideration or profits earned, derived or received by the claimant or her husband for her or his own use or benefit from any source whatever, whether in or out of the Commonwealth."

13. The amendments effected by this Part shall, subject to the Maternity Allowance Act 1912-1934, apply in respect of any birth occurring on or after the date of the commencement of this Part.

application of Part.

PART IV.—WAR PENSIONS.

14. Section forty-two of the Financial Emergency Act 1931-1933 is amended by omitting from sub-section (1.) the words "less ten per centum" (wherever occurring).

Pensions to wives of incapacitated members.

PART V.—SALARIES AND WAGES.

15. The Financial Emergency Act 1931-1933 is in this Part referred to as the Principal Act.

Citation.

16. Section ten of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from sub-section (1.) the words "Forty-two", "Twenty-eight" and "Twenty-one" and inserting in their stead respectively the words "Forty-eight", "Thirty-two" and "Twenty-four".

General reductions of salaries and wages.

17. Section seventeen of the Principal Act is amended—

Variation of reductions.

- (a) by omitting the words "seventeen and one-half per centum" (wherever occurring) and inserting in their stead the words "twelve and one-half per centum"; and
- (b) by omitting the words "twenty-two and one-half per centum" (wherever occurring) and inserting in their stead the words "seventeen and one-half per centum".

Schedule.

18. The First Schedule to the Principal Act is repealed and the following Schedule inserted in its stead :—

“ THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

METHOD OF ASCERTAINING DEDUCTIONS EFFECTED UNDER SECTION ELEVEN OF THIS ACT.

	Method to Follow to Ascertain Amount of Deduction.
1. In the case of salaries of officers or employees who are not adults	10½ x Salary—2,148 100
2. In the case of adult male officers or employees or married male officers or employees who are not adults—
(i) Salary not exceeding £202	10½ x Salary—4,296 100
(ii) Salary exceeding £202 but not exceeding £952 ..	12½ x Salary—4,200 100

(i) Salary not exceeding £218	10½ x Salary—3,356 100
(ii) Salary exceeding £218	12½ x Salary—3,280 100

For the purposes of this Schedule 'salary' means salary or allowance after reduction to the extent provided in section ten of this Act.

Where the application of the method specified in this Schedule would result in the reduction of the salary of an officer or employee below the amount to which the salary of an officer or employee at the upper limit of a lower salary group specified in the first column of this Schedule would be reduced, the amount to be deducted from the salary of the first-mentioned officer or employee shall be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent this result.

Where the application of the method specified in this Schedule to the salary of any officer or employee gives a negative result, the salary of that officer or employee shall not be affected by such application."

PART VI.—RELIEF TO PRIMARY PRODUCERS.

19. Subject to this Part, there shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is hereby appropriated accordingly, the sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds for the purposes of financial assistance to the States in the provision of relief to primary producers in respect of the production of primary produce other than wheat and for the purposes of providing relief to primary producers in any Territory in respect of that production.

20. The amount which may be paid under the last preceding section to any State shall be such as represents payments made by the State to primary producers in respect of the production of primary produce, other than wheat in that State, at the rate of fifteen shillings per ton for each ton of artificial manure used in that State, in respect of that production, by primary producers during the year ending on the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five :

Appropriation of £250,000 for relief to primary producers.

Amount payable to each State.

Provided that, in calculating the amount which may be paid to a State under this section in respect of artificial manure used by any primary producer during that year, fractions of a ton shall be excluded.

21. No payment made by a State to a primary producer shall be taken into account in calculating the amount which may be paid to that State under this Part unless—

Conditions of payment.

- (a) the primary producer has obtained, upon application made by him on or before the thirty-first day of October, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, from the Secretary of the Department of Commerce of the Commonwealth, a certificate in writing stating that the primary producer has produced satisfactory evidence that he has used in that State, during the year ending on the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, in the production of primary products other than wheat, the quantity of artificial manure stated in the certificate ; and
- (b) the amount of the payment is calculated at the rate of fifteen shillings per ton of the quantity of artificial manure stated in the certificate.

22. There shall be payable, out of the amount appropriated by this Part, to each primary producer in respect of the production of primary produce, other than wheat in any Territory, an amount representing fifteen shillings per ton of the artificial manure used by that primary producer in that Territory during the year ending on the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five :

Payments to primary producers in Territories.

Provided that—

- (a) in calculating the amount which may be paid to a primary producer under this section in respect of artificial manure used by him during that year, fractions of a ton shall be excluded ; and
- (b) no amount shall be paid under this section to a primary producer unless an application therefor has been made to the Secretary of the Department of Commerce of the Commonwealth on or before the thirty-first day of October, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

23 No person shall—

- (a) obtain any payment under this Part by means of any false or misleading statement ; or
- (b) present, to any officer or other person doing duty in relation to this Part or to regulations made under this Act, any document, or make to any such officer or person any statement, which is false in any particular.

Offences.

Penalty : Five hundred pounds, or imprisonment for two years.

Minister may require information.

24.—(1.) The Minister, or any person thereto authorized in writing by him, may by notice in writing call upon any person to furnish to him, within such time as is specified in the notice, such books, documents and information as the Minister or that authorized person thinks necessary for the purposes of, or in relation to compliance with, this Part, or the regulations made under this Act, or any suspected contravention thereof.

(2.) Any person who, without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie upon him), fails, after receipt of a notice under the last preceding sub-section, to comply with the requirements of the notice, shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: One hundred pounds, or imprisonment for six months.

Definition.

25. For the purposes of this Part “artificial manure” means any substance which contains nitrogen, phosphoric acid or potash and which has been manufactured, produced or prepared in any manner for the purpose of fertilizing the soil or supplying nutriment to plants, but does not include—

- (a) any animal or vegetable matter which has not been subjected to process or manufacture;

Tasmania	70,231

Application of moneys paid to States.

29. Any money granted to a State under this Part shall be so granted upon condition that it is applied by the State for the benefit and assistance of fruit growers.

PART VIII.—GENERAL.

30.—(1.) The provisions of Parts IV. and V. of this Act, to the extent to which they vary or authorize the variation of any periodical payment, shall have effect in respect of any periodical payment made after the commencement of this Act.

Commencement of variation in payments of war pensions and salaries.

(2.) For the purpose of this section, "periodical payment" means any payment by way of pension, salary, wage, fee or allowance which is ordinarily made at regular weekly, fortnightly, semi-monthly or monthly intervals, but does not include any payment which is made after the commencement of this Act and which relates wholly to a period the last date of which was prior to such commencement.

31. The Governor-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed, for carrying out or giving effect to this Act, and in particular for prescribing penalties not exceeding Fifty pounds or imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months for any breach of the regulations.
