* Act No. 9, 1949, as amended by No. 80, 1950.

“(2A.) The resignation of a non-official member becomes effective when it is received by the Administrator but the resignation of an official member is not effective unless and until it has been accepted by the Governor-General.”.

11.—(1.) Section fifty-one of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section inserted in its stead :—

“51.—(1.) Where an Ordinance is reserved for the Governor-General’s pleasure, the Governor-General shall, within one year after the day on which the Ordinance was presented to the Administrator for assent, declare—

Signification of pleasure on Ordinance reserved.

- (a) that he assents to the Ordinance ;
- (b) that he withholds assent ; or
- (c) that he assents to part of the Ordinance and withholds assent to the remainder of the Ordinance.

“(2.) The Administrator shall, as soon as practicable after the Governor-General has made a declaration in respect of an Ordinance in accordance with the last preceding sub-section, publish in the Government Gazette a notification of the declaration.

“(3.) The assent of the Governor-General to an Ordinance, or to a part of an Ordinance, is of no effect until notification of the Governor-General’s declaration in respect of the Ordinance is published by the Administrator in the Government Gazette.”.

(2.) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by the last preceding sub-section, the provisions of section fifty-one of the Principal Act continue to apply to Ordinances reserved for the Governor-General’s pleasure before the commencement of this Act.

12.—(1.) Division 3 of Part V. of the Principal Act is repealed.

Repeal of Division 3
of Part V.

(2.) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by the last preceding sub-section, all Ordinances in force immediately before the commencement of this Act by virtue of section fifty-six of the Principal Act—

- (a) shall continue in force after the commencement of this Act, but may be amended or repealed by Ordinances made under the Principal Act as amended by this Act ; and
- (b) shall, for the purposes of the definition of “ Ordinance ” in section five of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, be deemed to be Ordinances continued in force by the Principal Act as so amended.

13.—(1.) Section fifty-eight of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from sub-sections (2.), (5.) and (6.) the words “ Chief Judge ” (wherever occurring) and inserting in their stead the words “ Chief Justice ”.
