

in employment as specified in paragraph (b) of the last preceding sub-section until attaining the age of sixty-five years in the case of a male employee or sixty years in the case of a female employee.

“(3.) The salary on appointment of any person appointed under this section shall be as determined by the Board, but, subject to this Act, shall not be less than the salary to which he was entitled under the Naval Defence Act 1910-1934 in the position which, in the opinion of the Board, was his normal position under that Act.

“(4.) Where a person appointed under this section has had a prior period of service under the Melbourne Harbour Trust Act 1928 of the State of Victoria and the total period of service of that person under that State Act, under the Naval Defence Act 1910-1934 and under this Act is continuous, the prior period of service of that person under that State Act shall be taken into account for the purposes of sections seventy-three, seventy-four and seventy-five of this Act.

“(5.) For the purposes of sub-section (1.) of this section, the Board may, from time to time, request an employee who comes within the class of employees specified in that sub-section to elect, by writing addressed to the Board, within fourteen days after being so requested or within such further period as the Board within those fourteen days allows, to be appointed to the Commonwealth Service under this section and any such request shall include particulars of the classification of, and the remuneration payable in respect of, the proposed appointment.

“(6.) The provisions of any law of the Commonwealth providing for preference in any matter relating to the employment of discharged members of the Forces shall not apply in relation to the appointment of any person under this section.”.
