

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEXTO ET QUINQUAGESIMO
SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1893.

No. 565.

An Act to provide for Bonuses on the Export of Butter.

[Assented to, September 27th, 1893.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as “Butter Bonus Act, 1893.” Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, “exported butter” shall mean butter made in South Australia of South Australian produce and exported to a port outside the Australasian Colonies. Definition “exported butter.”

3. Any maker of butter shall, during the period of three years after the coming into operation of this Act, be entitled to receive from the Treasurer Two Pence for every pound of exported butter made by him. Bonus to be paid.

4. Before such butter is exported, the Treasurer shall be satisfied that such butter is of the best quality, and well suited and properly packed for export, and no payment shall be made in respect of a less quantity than one hundred pounds exported at one time. Conditions on payment of bonus.

5. The Treasurer may make regulations for carrying into effect the provisions and purposes of this Act, and the same shall be laid before Parliament for seven days, and shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thenceforth have the force of law. Regulations may be made.

6. Any

Butter Bonus Act.—1893.

Official stamp or certificate.

6. Any regulation made pursuant to the preceding section may provide for the official stamping and certifying of butter which, as to quality, kind, and packing, complies with the requisites of section 4.

Appropriation of revenue.

7. The general revenue of the province is hereby appropriated for the payment of the bonus provided for by this Act.

Limitation of bonus.

8. The amount paid by the Treasurer under this Act shall not exceed Twelve Thousand Pounds.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.