

ANNO SEPTIMO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1907.

No. 929.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Registration of Births, Marriages, and Deaths.

[Assented to, December 12th, 1907.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Births, Marriages, and Deaths Registration Amendment Act, 1907." Short title.
2. The Sixth Schedule to "The Marriage Act, 1867," is hereby amended by inserting after the fourth column thereof, headed "Age," an additional column, headed "Place and Country of Birth." Amendment of Act 15 of 1867.
3. The Act No. 851 of 1904, intituled, "An Act to amend 'The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1874,'" is hereby repealed. Repeal of Act 851 of 1904.
4. Section 24 of "The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1874," is hereby amended by adding the words "or District Registrar" after the words "Deputy Registrar" in the second line thereof. Certified copies made evidence.
5. Section 20 of "The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1874," is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:— Certificate of death.

20. Every medical practitioner who shall have been in attendance upon any person deceased, or who shall have examined the body, shall deliver to the nearest of kin, occupier, or other person required to give information of the death to the District Registrar,

Births, Marriages, and Deaths Registration Amendment Act.—1907.

Registrar, a certificate under his hand according to the form in the Sixth Schedule to this Act, setting forth to the best of his knowledge and belief the cause of death, which certificate such nearest of kin, occupier, or other person shall, when notifying the death, deliver to the District Registrar or Registrar-General, and such medical practitioner refusing or neglecting to give such certificate shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Five Pounds.

Powers of Deputy Registrar.

6. The Deputy Registrar of Births and Deaths appointed under "The Registration of Births and Deaths Act. 1874," shall have the same powers and may perform and exercise the same duties and authorities as the Registrar-General of Births and Deaths.

Fees to be paid into revenue.

Act 851 of 1904, sec. 1.

7. From and after the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four, all fees levied and received by any Deputy Registrar of Births and Deaths, District Registrar, Assistant Registrar, or other person authorised under any Act relating to the levying, receiving, or collecting of fees for the registration of births and deaths, shall be forthwith forwarded by the persons so levying, receiving, or collecting to the Registrar-General of Births and Deaths, at Adelaide, and shall be applied to the purposes of the General Revenue of the State: Provided, nevertheless, that when a Registrar is only an Assistant Registrar this section shall not apply to the fee of Two Shillings and Six Pence levied and received by him in connection with the late registration of a birth or a death, which last-mentioned fee shall be retained by such Assistant Registrar for his services in connection with such late registration.

Forms.

8. The forms in the Schedules hereto shall hereafter be used as the forms of certificates of the registration of births and deaths respectively.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE, Governor.

Births, Marriages, and Deaths Registration Amendment Act.—1907.
