

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1866-7.

No. 10.

An Act to amend the Customs Act, 1864.

[Assented to, 11th January, 1867.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Customs Act, 1864—
Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make and, from time to time, to vary and alter regulations, for the purpose of providing for the exportation of goods for drawback to declared ports or legal landing-places on the River Murray and its tributaries, in the Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria, although the package or packages in which such goods were originally imported shall have been opened, or any of the contents taken therefrom, or although such goods shall not be in the packages in which they were so imported into the said Province, anything in the said Customs Act, 1864, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Drawback to be allowed on broken packages for the River Murray.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council to make and, from time to time, to vary and alter regulations for the purpose of providing for the allowance of drawbacks on the exportation of goods made of articles the growth and produce of the said Province, in the manufacture of which sugar is required to be used, on the quantity of sugar so used: Provided that no drawback shall be allowed or recoverable by virtue of this Act on any goods for a less amount than Forty Shillings.

Regulations for drawbacks may be varied.

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

3. A copy of all regulations made under the authority of this Act shall be laid before the Parliament within fourteen days from the publication thereof, if the Parliament be then sitting; and if the Parliament shall not be then sitting, then within twenty-one days from its next sitting for the dispatch of business.

Incorporation.

4. The Customs Act, 1864, shall (save so far as the same is amended hereby) be deemed to be incorporated with this Act, and shall be construed herewith as forming one Act.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen, I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
