No. 8.

ORDINANCE Enacted by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For ascertaining the number of Inhabitants of the Province of South Australia in the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-one.

[11th June, 1850.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for ascertaining the number of Inhabitants within the Province of South Australia, simultaneously with a General Census of the population of the British Dominions under the Superintendence of the Registrar-General in England : Preamble.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That on or before such day in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-one, as shall hereafter be appointed by Proclamation of the Governor, published in the South Australian Government Gazette, the Justices of the Peace shall, and they are hereby required and Justices and others to cause notices to be fixed in conspicuous places, calling on householders, &c., to give the information required by this Ordinance.

and directed to cause general notices to be affixed on the several Churches, Chapels, Court Houses, Police Stations, and such other conspicuous places as they shall deem proper, within the said Province, requiring every householder, employer of servants, and proprietor or occupier of land therein, to be prepared upon a certain day, to be also appointed by such Proclamation, or on the days immediately subsequent thereto, to give all such information as is required by the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, to such persons as shall be employed, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to collect the same.

Governor to appoint persons to collect the information required by this Ordinance.

II. And be it Enacted, That the Governor shall appoint, by notice in the Government Gazette, one or more proper persons in each district to collect the information required, and the said persons shall, on the day proclaimed for taking the Census as aforesaid, and on the days immediately subsequent thereto, if one day shall not be sufficient, proceed to take an account, in writing, of the number of persons at that time being within the limits of their respective Districts, and inform themselves of the several particulars specified in the said Schedule, distinguishing the County, or reputed County, in which each such person shall be and reside: And the better to enable the persons appointed as aforesaid to take such accounts, they are hereby authorised and empowered to ask such questions of the persons residing or being within their respective Districts, concerning themselves, and the number, quality, age, and trade or calling of the persons constituting their respective families, and all such other particulars as shall be necessary to fill up the said Schedule, and every such person refusing or neglecting to answer, or wilfully giving a false answer to any such question, shall, for every such refusal, or neglect, or false answer, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, at the discretion of the Justice or Justices before whom complaint thereof shall be made.

Persons appointed as aforesaid, to deliver over their accounts of Inhabitants to the Colonial Secretary within a certain time.

III. And be it Enacted, That the persons so to be appointed, as aforesaid, shall, within fourteen days after the time proclaimed for taking the Census as aforesaid, appear before some Justice of the Peace for the Province, and produce the original accounts taken in writing and subscribed by them, and shall make affidavit to the same in the form contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked B, before the said Justice of the Peace, who is hereby authorised to take such affidavit, and shall answer all such questions concerning such accounts as shall be put to them by the said Justice of the Peace; and that the person so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall, within fourteen days of making such affidavit as aforesaid, aforesaid, transmit to the Colonial Secretary of the Province, the original accounts so taken in writing and verified by their affidavit, as aforesaid, and if any such person shall fail or neglect to take such accounts, or shall knowingly make any false statement therein, or shall omit to verify or transmit the same in manner hereby required, or shall refuse to answer, or wilfully give a false answer to any question, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay for every such offence, a sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, at the discretion of the Justice or Justices before whom complaint thereof shall be made.

IV. And be it Enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Excellency the Governor to cause an allowance for the number of days which any such person, appointed as aforesaid, shall be actually employed in taking such account as aforesaid, at a rate not exceeding Twenty Shillings per day.

Allowance to the persons appointed by the Governor.

V. And be it Enacted, That all fines imposed under and by virtue of this Ordinance, shall be recovered in a summary manner, before any one or more Justices of the Peace, and all parties aggrieved by any adjudication, order, or conviction under this Ordinance, may appeal therefrom, according to the Laws of the Province for regulating summary proceedings before Justices; and all such fines, when recovered, shall be paid, one half to the informer or person who shall sue for the same, and the other moiety to the Colonial Treasurer, on behalf of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, towards defraying the expense of carrying this Ordinance into execution, and for the public uses of the Province, and support of the Government thereof.

Fines to be recovered in a summary way.

H. E. F. YOUNG,
Lieutenant-Governor.
