A.D. 1993

*****

No. 33 of 1993

An Act to amend the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988.

[Assented to 13 May 1993]

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Short title

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Criminal Law (Sentencing) (Education Programmes) Amendment Act 1993.

(2) The Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 is referred to in this Act as "the principal Act".

Commencement

2. This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Amendment of s. 42—Conditions of bond

3. Section 42 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after subsection (1)(g) the following paragraph:

- (ga) a condition requiring the defendant to attend and complete, within the term of the bond or such lesser period as the court may specify, a specified education programme approved by the Attorney-General for the offence of which the defendant has been found guilty;;

and

- (b) by inserting after subsection (4) the following subsection:

(5) The following provisions apply in relation to education programmes approved or to be approved for the purposes of this section:

- (a) the Attorney-General may approve such a programme unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Attorney-General thinks fit and specifies in the instrument of approval;
- (b) the Attorney-General may, by written notice to the programme provider, revoke an approval or vary the conditions of an approval;

and

- (c) any fees for undertaking an approved education programme are to be borne by the defendant, subject to any relief from payment given by the programme provider in accordance with conditions imposed by the Attorney-General pursuant to this subsection.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.
