No. 1489.

An Act to amend the Dentists Acts, 1902 to 1918.

[Assented to, December 7th, 1921.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited alone as the “Dentists Act Further Amendment Act, 1921.” Short titles.

(2) The Dentists Acts, 1902 to 1918, and this Act may be cited together as the “Dentists Acts, 1902 to 1921.”

2. This Act is incorporated with the other Acts mentioned in section 1 of this Act, and those Acts and this Act shall be read as one Act. Incorporation with other Acts.

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Dentists Act Further Amendment Act, 1917, if any person who is otherwise qualified to be registered in pursuance of section 5 of the said Act has, on account of illness or other cause deemed sufficient by the Dental Board of South Australia, neither presented himself three times for the practical examination referred to in the said section 5 nor passed the said examination, such person may present himself for such practical examination within six months from the passing of this Act. Provision in certain cases for further practical examination to qualify for registration.

(2) If such person passes such practical examination he may be registered under section 5 of the Dentists Act Further Amendment Act, 1917, but if he fails to pass such practical examination he shall not be entitled to be so registered.

(3) Such
