

ANNO DECIMO NONO

ELIZABETHAE II REGINAE

A.D. 1970

No. 9 of 1970

An Act to provide for the discontinuance of the railway between Eudunda and Morgan and for other purposes.

[Assented to 3rd September, 1970]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Eudunda and Morgan Railway (Discontinuance) Act, 1970". Short title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation.

"the Commissioner" means the South Australian Railways Commissioner:

"the plan" means the Parliamentary Plan No. 338 signed "R. J. Bridgland, Chief Engineer", dated the 25th day of November, 1969, and deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General at Adelaide:

"the railway" means the railway constructed under the railway construction act:

"the railway construction act" means Act No. 27 of 1876 intituled An Act to provide for the formation of a Line of Railway from Kapunda to the North-West Bend of the River Murray.

3. (1) The Commissioner may take up and remove or otherwise dispose of that portion of the railway shown on the plan between the point marked "A" and the point marked "B" including the buildings and other works appurtenant thereto or used for the purposes thereof and may use, sell or otherwise dispose of the materials so removed as he deems expedient.

Removal of portion of the railway.

(2) The Commissioner may establish a terminus at the point marked "A" on the enlargement shown on the plan and, for the purposes thereof, construct such buildings and other works as he deems expedient.

(3) Notwithstanding the removal of portion of the railway in accordance with this Act, the remainder thereof shall be deemed to be a railway authorized and constructed under and in accordance with the railway construction act.

Incorporation.

4. This Act is incorporated with the South Australian Railways Commissioner's Act, 1936-1969, and that Act and this Act shall be read as one Act.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

J. W. HARRISON, Governor.
