A.D. 1872.

No. 27.

An Act to Define the Electoral Districts for the Election of Members to serve in the Parliament of South Australia.

[Reserved, 27th November, 1872.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws relating to, and Preamble.
to declare the Electoral Districts for the Election of Members to serve in the Parliament of South Australia—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 14 of "The Constitution Act," from and after the coming into operation of this Act, the said House of Assembly shall consist of forty-six members. House of Assembly to consist of forty-six members.

2. Sections 3 and 4 of the "Electoral Act, 1861," and the Schedules referred to in such sections, are hereby repealed, but nothing lawfully done under the authority thereof shall be invalidated, nor shall any rights acquired, or liability incurred, thereunder be affected by such repeal. Repeal of Sections 3 and 4 of "Electoral Act 1861."

3. The said Province shall form one electoral district for the election of members of the Legislative Council of the said Province; and such district shall be divided into twenty-two electoral divisions, and the several divisions specified in the First Schedule hereto shall form such electoral divisions. Electoral district for electing Legislative Council.

Electoral districts for electing members of House of Assembly.

4. The said Province shall be divided into twenty-two electoral districts for the election of members of the House of Assembly of the said Province, which districts shall have the names and boundaries specified in the said First Schedule.

Members for each district.

5. Each electoral district for the election of members of the said House of Assembly shall return the number of members mentioned in the said first Schedule respectively.

Polling places.

6. For each electoral division and district there shall be such polling places as are mentioned in the second Schedule hereto, and such other polling places as the Governor may, in accordance with an address from the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, by Proclamation in the South Australian Government Gazette appoint: Provided always, that the Governor may, upon the like addresses, declare that any of the polling places mentioned in the Second Schedule, or which may hereafter be appointed, as aforesaid, shall cease to be polling places, and may, by Proclamation, direct at which other polling places electors entitled to vote thereat are to record their votes, and thereupon the rolls shall be altered accordingly.

Act not to come into force till dissolution of House of Assembly.

7. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any election of a member or members to serve in the said Parliament before a dissolution by the Governor or by effluxion of time of the House of Assembly, existing at the time when this Act shall come into operation; and any and every such election shall be holden in such manner as if the said sections 3 and 4 of the "Electoral Act, 1861," and the Schedules referred to in such sections were not hereby repealed, and for the purposes of any and every such last-mentioned election, the said sections 3 and 4 and the said Schedules shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect; and the electoral rolls of the several electoral districts as existing at the time of this Act coming into operation, shall, for the purposes of any such election, be the electoral roll of such respective districts to be used at such election, anything in the 16th section of the "Electoral Act, 1861," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commencement of Act.

8. This Act shall, subject to the provision of the last preceding section, come into operation from and after a day to be fixed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Province, by Proclamation in the South Australian Government Gazette.

I reserve this Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
