

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1909.

*****

No. 987.

An Act to amend the "Inflammable Oils Act, 1908."

[Assented to, December 11th, 1909.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Inflammable Oils Act Amendment Act, 1909," and this Act and the "Inflammable Oils Act, 1908" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), may be cited together as the "Inflammable Oils Acts, 1908 and 1909."

Short title.

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act, and shall be read therewith as one Act.

Incorporation with principal Act.

3. Paragraph (c) of section 12 of the principal Act (which regulates registered premises) is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

Amendment of section 12 of principal Act.

(c) No artificial light shall be brought within thirty feet of any place where any vessel containing inflammable oil is being kept, except a light of such construction, position, or character as not to be liable to ignite any inflammable vapor arising from such inflammable oil, unless such inflammable oil is separated from such artificial light by a screen wall.

Rules as to registered premises.

4. Paragraph

Inflammable Oils Act Amendment Act.—1909.

Amendment of section 15 of principal
Act.

4. Paragraph (c) of section 15 of the principal Act (which states the conditions under which stores may be licensed) is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

Conditions as to licensing stores.

(c) Every depôt shall be so situated as not to be within fifty feet of any fire, forge, furnace, explosive, highly inflammable substance, or other source of danger, unless there is a screen wall between such fire, forge, furnace, explosive, substance, or source of danger and every place where inflammable oil is to be stored.

Amendment of section 17 of principal
Act.

5. (1) Paragraph (d) of section 17 of the principal Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

Rules as to licensed stores.

(d) No explosive, nor anything liable to spontaneous ignition or combustion, nor any fire or light, except an artificial light of the construction and character prescribed, shall be placed, brought, or allowed to remain within fifty feet of any inflammable oil within the depôt, unless such inflammable oil is separated from such explosive, thing, fire, or light by a screen wall.

(2) Paragraph (e) of the said section 17 is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 22 of principal
Act.

6. The notice required by section 22 of the principal Act to be given before conveying, loading, or unloading inflammable oil, may be given by the master or the owner of the ship or boat, or by the agent of the master or owner.

Notice before shipping oil.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
