

ANNO TRICESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1869-70.

No. 2.

An Act to amend an Act, No. 3 of 1868, intituled "An Act to amend the Northern Territory Act."

[Assented to, 9th February, 1870.]

WHEREAS certain persons have, through accident or inadvertence, neglected to forward to the Commissioner of Crown Lands a notice in writing of their desire to accept the increased area granted by the Act, No. 3 of 1868, intituled "An Act to amend the Northern Territory Act," upon the terms and within the time fixed by the said Act, and it is desirable that such persons, and others who have not given such notice, should be enabled to obtain the advantages of the said Act—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. All persons who have, through accident or inadvertence, neglected to forward to the Commissioner of Crown Lands a notice in writing as aforesaid within the time fixed by the said Act, and all persons who shall before the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, give notice in writing, in accordance with section 5 of Act No. 3 of 1868, of their desire to accept the increased area granted by the said Act, shall be entitled to the full advantage of the said Act in the same manner as they would have been entitled if they had given notice in writing to the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the said Province, in the manner and within the time fixed by clause 5 of the said Act, but not further or otherwise.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
