PART II.

PART II.

THE BOARD OF OPTICAL REGISTRATION.

DIVISION I.

DIVISION I.—CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD.

Constitution of Board.

4. (1) A Board, to be called the “ Board of Optical Registration,” shall be constituted for carrying this Act into effect.

(2) The Board shall consist of five persons, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Board.

First Board to be appointed by Governor.

5. (1) The members of the Board shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act, be appointed by the Governor, and shall consist of three persons deemed by the Governor to be competent opticians and of two legally qualified medical practitioners : Provided that if the requisite number of legally qualified medical practitioners are unwilling to act as members of the Board the Governor may appoint one or two persons deemed by him to be competent opticians to be members of the Board according to the deficiency in the number of legally qualified medical practitioners.

(2) The Governor shall appoint one of the members of the Board to be Chairman of the Board.

(3) Subject to this Act such members shall remain in office for a period of three years or until the Board has been newly appointed as hereinafter provided.

6. (1) On

*Opticians Act.—1920.*PART II,
DIVISION I.

6. (1) On the expiration of the period for which the members of the first Board have been appointed, another Board shall be appointed by the Governor after being respectively nominated, as follows, namely :—

Constitution of second Board.

- I. Two certified opticians, and one legally qualified medical practitioner shall be nominated by the Minister :
- II. One certified optician and one legally qualified medical practitioner shall be nominated by certified opticians :

Provided that if the requisite number of legally qualified medical practitioners are unwilling to act as members of the Board on the nomination of the Minister or certified opticians, then in lieu of any of such legally qualified medical practitioners mentioned in subdivisions I. and II. hereof, a certified optician may be nominated by the Minister or certified opticians, as the case may require.

(2) Subject to this Act such persons shall remain in office for three years or until their successors are appointed.

7. At the expiration of the said period of three years, and after each successive period of three years, a fresh appointment of members of the Board shall be made in like manner as is hereinbefore provided in relation to the second Board, and the retiring members shall, if still qualified, be eligible for renomination and reappointment.

Constitution of subsequent Boards.

8. The persons constituting the second and subsequent Boards shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the Board.

Chairman of subsequent Boards.

9. If any member of the Board—

Filling vacancy in Boards.

10. (1) If any vacancy occurs in the Board during the period for which the first members of the Board have been appointed, the Governor may appoint some competent person to fill such vacancy.

(2) If the seat of any member appointed to any subsequent Board by the Governor becomes vacant the Governor may appoint some competent person to fill such vacancy.

(3) The person appointed by the Governor, under subsection (1) hereof shall be a legally qualified medical practitioner or a person deemed by the Governor to be a competent optician according to the vacancy to be filled, and the person appointed under subsection (2) hereof, shall be nominated by the Minister or by the certified opticians according to the vacancy to be filled and shall be a certified optician or a legally qualified medical practitioner according to the calling of the person whose seat has become vacant: Provided that in case the vacancy referred to in subsection (1) hereof is in the seat of a legally qualified medical practitioner, and no suitable legally qualified medical practitioner is willing to act in the vacant seat, the Governor may appoint a person deemed by him to be a competent optician, and, in case the vacancy referred to in subsection (2) hereof is in the seat of a legally qualified medical practitioner, and no suitable legally qualified medical practitioner is willing to act in the vacant seat, the Minister or the certified opticians (according to the person or persons by whom the person whose seat has become vacant has been nominated) may nominate a certified optician to fill such vacancy, and the person so nominated may be appointed by the Governor accordingly.

(4) The person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired period of office of the person in whose place he was appointed, but he may be renominated and reappointed to be a member, if qualified for membership under this Act.

Appointment
without nomination on failure to nominate.

11. (1) If in any case the person or persons having the right to nominate a person for appointment as a member fails or fail to give notice in writing to the Clerk of the Executive Council of the nomination within two months after being requested in writing by the said clerk to make such nomination the Governor may appoint a member without nomination.

(2) In the case of certified opticians the request to nominate shall be duly made by being published in the Gazette.

(3) If the appointment made by the Governor under this section is to the first Board the person appointed shall be a legally qualified medical practitioner, or a person deemed by the Governor to be a competent optician, as the case may require. If such appointment is to the second or any subsequent Board, the person so appointed shall be a legally qualified medical practitioner, or a certified optician, as the case may require: Provided that if no suitable legally qualified medical practitioner is willing to be appointed under this section the Governor may appoint a person deemed by him to be a competent competent optician if such appointment is to the first Board, or a certified optician if such appointment is to the second or any subsequent Board.

(4) A member appointed pursuant to this section shall be deemed to have been appointed after being nominated by the person or persons having the right to nominate.

12. The Governor may remove any member of the Board for neglect of duty, incompetency, dishonorable conduct, or other cause deemed sufficient by the Governor.

Removal of members from Board.

13. The rules set forth in the First Schedule shall apply to the business, conduct, and proceedings of the Board, and shall be observed, but may be revoked or altered wholly or in part by the regulations.

Rules for conduct of the Board. First Schedule.

DIVISION II.—POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD.

DIVISION II.

14. (1) The Board may, from time to time—

Board may appoint Registrar and examiners.

(a) appoint a Registrar (who shall also act as secretary to the Board) and such examiners as it thinks necessary for giving effect to this Act; and

(b) out of the funds at its disposal pay to the Registrar such salary as it thinks fit, and to such examiners such fees as may be prescribed.

(2) All such persons shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board.

15. No member of the Board shall act as examiner under section 20, but may be appointed and act as an examiner at any other examination, and shall be entitled to any fees granted by the Board to such examiners.

Member of Board may not act as examiner.

16. The Board, from time to time—

Various powers of the Board.

(a) may temporarily suspend any certified optician or licensed spectacle seller from the practice or pursuit of his calling in any case where such suspension appears to the Board to be necessary:

(b) may decide upon the removal from the Register of the name of any person for disobeying this Act or for other misconduct, and the cancelling of the annual certificate or licence of any person whose name is so removed, and may restore to the Register the name of any person so removed:

(c) may remove from the Register the name of any person who, having held a certificate or licence, fails to pay the annual fee, and may restore any name so removed on such terms and conditions as to payment of fees in arrear or otherwise as the Board thinks fit: (d) shall,

PART II.
DIVISION II.

Opticians Act.—1920.

(d) shall, as necessity arises, hold examinations of persons desiring to qualify for registration as certified opticians under this Act, and fix the places where, and the times when, examinations shall be held :

(e) may issue and cancel certificates and licences ;

and generally may do any other act or duty which may be necessary or expedient for effectually carrying out this Act.

Board may require attendance of witnesses, &c.

17. (1) The Board may by summons require the attendance of any person who applies for registration, and of any other person, and may examine or question any such person or any witnesses who attend before the Board, upon oath, affirmation, or otherwise, and for any such purposes the Chairman may administer an oath or affirmation.

(2) Every summons issued by the Board requiring the attendance of any person or the production of any documents, shall have the same effect as a subpoena issued by the Supreme Court in a civil action ; and the obedience thereto or non-observance thereof may be enforced and punished by a Judge of the said Court sitting in Chambers in the same manner as in the case of the disobedience or non-observance of a subpoena issued by the said Court.

Reciprocity.

18. (1) The Board may enter into a reciprocal arrangement with the Board of Optical Registration or other competent authority of the United Kingdom or of any State or Colony within His Majesty's dominions for the recognition of the status of any person authorised by such Board or other authority to practice optometry in such Country, State, or Colony, and the registration of such persons under this Act.

(2) Any such arrangement may contain a condition that any such person applying to be registered under this Act shall furnish additional satisfactory evidence of character and competency.

Disposal of fees, &c.

19. All moneys received by the Board under this Act, except such sum, not exceeding Seventy-five Pounds in any one financial year, as is required for the payment of expenses of the execution of this Act, shall be paid to the Treasurer for the public uses of the State.

PART III.

PART III.

REGISTERED OPTICIANS AND SPECTACLE SELLERS.

Qualifications for registration.

20. (1) Subject to this Act, any person of or over the age of twenty-one years shall be entitled to be registered and receive a certificate as a certified optician under this Act—

(a) who, during the full period of three years next before the commencement of this Act, has been bona fide engaged in the practice of optometry in this State, and who passes, to the satisfaction of two examiners to be appointed by the Governor—one of whom shall be a legally qualified medical practitioner and the other a person deemed by the Governor to be a competent optician

Opticians Act.—1920.

PART III.

optician—an elementary practical examination in optometry deemed sufficiently comprehensive to reasonably safeguard the public against possible injury arising from ignorance or incompetence: Provided he is of good character and makes application for registration in the prescribed form within six months after the commencement of this Act, and produces to the Board such evidence of his title to registration as the Board may reasonably require: Provided that if no suitable legally qualified medical practitioner is willing to act as examiner the Governor may appoint as the two examiners above mentioned two persons deemed by him to be competent opticians; or

- (b) who, having complied with this Act as to training, examination, and otherwise, has received from the Board's examiners a certificate of competency, and produces the same to the Board, together with evidence satisfactory to the Board that he is of good character; or
- (c) who is qualified to practice optometry in any co-operating State, is of good character, and has otherwise complied with any conditions authorised by this Act; or
- (d) who proves to the satisfaction of the Board that he holds some certificate or other evidence of qualification prescribed by the regulations to be sufficient to entitle him to be registered, and that he is of good character; or
- (e) who has been on active service, is of good character, and was during the full period of three years next before the date of his enlistment for active service bonâ fide engaged in the practice of optometry in this State;
- (f) who during the full period of seven years next before the commencement of this Act has been carrying on the practice of optometry in the State as a sole or main means of livelihood at a fixed place of business within the State.

(2) In this section "active service" means service in the war with Germany which commenced on the fourth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and with the allies of Germany in that war, as a member of—

- (a) the Australian Imperial Force or the Royal Australian Navy; or
- (b) His Majesty's Army or Navy; or
- (c) any naval or military force raised in any country forming part of His Majesty's Dominions for service in such war outside the country wherein such force was raised.

21. (1) Subject to this Act any person of or over the age of twenty-one years shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, be entitled without examination to be registered as a spectacle seller, and to receive a licence in that behalf from the Board.

Person selling spectacles to be licensed.

(2) Any

PART III.

Opticians Act.—1920.

(2) Any person not being a licensed spectacle seller under this Act who sells spectacles by retail shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorise or permit spectacle sellers who are not certified opticians to practice optometry or to dispense oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses.

Board to issue certificates.

22. (1) The Board shall upon registration, and thereafter annually upon payment therefor of the prescribed fee, issue to every person entitled to practise optometry, and applying for the same, a certificate in the form in the Second Schedule.

Second Schedule.

(2) The Board shall, upon the registration of a spectacle seller under section 21 of this Act, and thereafter annually upon payment therefor of the prescribed fee, issue to every person thus registered a licence in the form in the Third Schedule.

Third Schedule.

(3) Such certificates and licences shall be in force until and inclusive of the thirty-first day of December next after the issue thereof.

Registration and licence fees.

23. (1) There shall be payable to the Board, in respect of the registration of any certified optician who applies to be registered under this Act, a fee of Three Pounds, and an annual fee thereafter of One Pound for each renewal of the certificate.

(2) There shall be payable to the Board in respect of the registration of any person who applies to be registered under section 21 of this Act a fee of One Pound, and an annual fee thereafter of Ten Shillings for each renewal of the licence.

(3) The annual fees hereby prescribed shall be payable to the Board by every person registered under this Act on or before the first day of January in each year following the year in which he is registered.

Failure to pay annual fee.

24. Every person who, having held a certificate or licence under this Act, has failed to make payment to the Board of the annual fee within the time hereinbefore provided for payment thereof, and afterwards applies to the Board for such certificate or licence, shall not be entitled thereto unless he furnishes to the Board a satisfactory reason for having failed to make such payment, together with proof of good character in the meantime.

Registration not to imply medical qualification, &c.

25. Registration under this Act shall not confer upon any person any right or title—

(a) to be registered under Ordinance No. 17 of 1844 or any Act amending or in substitution for the same; or

(b) to assume the title of oculist or any other name, title, or designation implying that he is by law recognised as a medical practitioner, or that he is qualified to practise ophthalmic medicine or surgery; or

(c) to

PART III.

(c) to administer any drug for the purpose of paralysing the accommodation of the eye; or

(d) to sell, supply, or prescribe any drug for, or to treat, any disease of the eye.

26. The Registrar shall, in the month of January in each year, cause to be published in the Gazette a list of persons who have taken out certificates and licences under section 22 of this Act for the then current year.

List of certificated and licensed persons to be gazetted annually.

27. (1) Subject to this Act any certified optician shall be entitled to practice optometry and dispense oculists' prescriptions for glasses in any part of the State.

Persons who may practice optometry, etc.

(2) After the expiration of six months from the commencement of this Act no person who is not a legally qualified medical practitioner, or a certified optician, shall practise optometry, test eyesight, or dispense oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses in any part of this State: Provided that this provision shall not be construed to prevent any person from engaging in the actual craft of lens-grinding and spectacle-making, nor to debar any apprentice indentured to a certified optician from obtaining the practice and experience in sight-testing and in the dispensing of prescriptions for glasses necessary to enable him to qualify as a certified optician.

(3) Any person offending against subsection (2) hereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

28. (1) After the expiration of six months from the commencement of this Act no person who is not a legally qualified medical practitioner or a certified optician under this Act shall—

Persons not to assume title implying registration, &c.

(a) assume or use the title of "optician," or any other title prescribed by the regulations to designate opticians or the practice of optometry; or

(b) use or exhibit any title, term, or sign which may be construed to mean that he is qualified to perform the duties of a certified optician, or to dispense oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses;

(c) use or exhibit any title, term, or sign implying or tending to imply or convey the belief that such person is qualified or authorised to test eyesight, or that sight-testing is practised, carried on, or performed by such person.

(2) Any person offending against this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

29. The provisions of sections 27 and 28 shall not apply to the legal personal representatives of a certified optician actually carrying on business at the time of his death who continue such business if and so long as such business is carried on under the actual personal supervision supervision and management of a certified optician and the name of such certified optician is set forth on or in every signboard, advertisement, or name plate, in which the title, term, or sign referred to in section 28 is used by such persons.

Restrictions upon companies and firms.

30. (1) After the expiration of six months from the commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any company, or for any persons or person carrying on business under such circumstances that registration under section 4 of the Registration of Firms Act, 1899, is necessary—

- (a) to carry on or attempt to carry on the business of, or pretend to be certified opticians, eye-sight testers, or licensed dispensers of oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses; or
- (b) to assume or use the title of certified opticians, dispensing opticians, oculists, opticians, ophthalmic opticians, refractionists, or other word or words of similar import, either in the singular or the plural; or
- (c) to use or exhibit any title, term, or sign which may be construed to mean, or may tend to convey the belief, that such company or persons or person is or are qualified to practice optometry, test eyesight, or dispense oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses, or that optometry sight-testing, or the dispensing of such prescriptions is practised, carried on, or performed, by such company or persons or person;

unless every shop or place of business of such company or persons or person is carried on under the actual personal supervision and management of a certified optician, and the name of such certified optician is set forth on or in every signboard or advertisement in which such title, term, sign, or words is or are used by such company or persons or person.

(2) Any company or person or persons offending against this section shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Ten Pounds for every day during which the offence has been continued.

(3) Any person aiding or abetting any company or persons or person in any such offence shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds and not less than Three Pounds.

Place of business of certified optician to be under his own or another certified optician's management.

31. (1) Every certified optician who keeps or permits to be kept, under his name, any open shop or place of business for the practice of optometry or dispensing of oculists' or opticians' prescriptions for glasses, save under the actual personal supervision and management of himself or of another certified optician, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and to a further penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds for every day during which the offence has continued after conviction.

(2) This section shall not come into operation until after the expiration of six months from the commencement of this Act.

PART

Opticians Act.—1920.

PART IV.

REGISTER OF OPTICIANS AND SPECTACLE SELLERS.

32. An accurate Register shall be kept by the Registrar, in accordance with the regulations, to be styled the "Register of Opticians and Spectacle Sellers," which shall contain a list of the names of all persons registered under this Act in alphabetical order in each class according to the surnames, and shall state the full names and addresses of certified and licensed persons, and, subject to this Act, shall contain such particulars and be in such form as the Board may from time to time direct.
