

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO ET QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1889.

No. 452.

An Act providing for the Construction of an Outer Harbor near Largs Bay.

[Assented to, October 23rd, 1889.]

WHEREAS great public advantage would arise from the construction of an outer harbor near Largs Bay—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, within one year after the passing of this Act, to enter into and conclude an agreement with any person or company who may be willing to construct an outer harbor near Largs Bay according to the terms and conditions herein set forth. Governor may make agreement.

2. The agreement, when duly executed by the contracting parties or their representatives, shall constitute the said person or company the promoters of the undertaking under this Act; and the promoters shall, within the time mentioned in such agreement, construct the whole or such portion of the said outer harbor as may be required by such agreement in accordance with plans and specifications to be approved by the Governor and deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General. And the said agreement shall also contain all such provisions and stipulations in relation to the matters aforesaid, and any of them, and in relation to the said outer harbor and the encouragement and promotion thereof, and the Terms.

Outer Harbor Act.—1889.

the eventual or contingent transfer of the same or any part thereof and the lands connected therewith to the Government as the said Governor, with the advice aforesaid, and the said person or company shall respectively think fit and agree upon.

Grant of land.

3. The said person or company shall, subject to the said agreement, be entitled to the use and control of all lands that may be required for the purposes of the said outer harbor and works connected therewith; and on the completion of the said outer harbor, or of such portion or portions thereof as may be agreed upon, the Governor may from time to time issue to the said person or company grants of the whole of the land described in the First Schedule hereto, reclaimed by them, and of such other lands as may be agreed upon: Provided that the total area of land granted under this Act shall not exceed one hundred and ten acres.

Tolls.

4. The said person or company may demand and take for receiving and berthing ships, and for wharfage and other dues, such tolls and charges as such person or company may from time to time determine, not exceeding the tolls set out in the Second Schedule hereto.

Governor may purchase works.

5. The Governor may at any time after the expiration of thirty years, upon giving to the said person or company, their successors or assigns, twelve months' notice in writing of such being his desire, purchase the said outer harbor works and land, paying for the same out of moneys to be appropriated by the Parliament for the purpose such a sum as may be determined by the valuation of two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the Governor and one by such person or company, their successors or assigns, with power to such valuers to appoint an umpire in case of disagreement.

Reserves to be marked before grant.

6. Before granting any land to the said company, such roads, reserves, and crossings, as may be considered necessary for public purposes, shall be marked out on the ground by the Government.

Lands Clauses Act incorporated.
No compulsory power.

7. The "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act" shall be incorporated with and form part of this Act, so far as applicable to the same; but nothing in this Act shall entitle the said person or company to compulsorily acquire, by purchase, any land.

Saving rights of the Crown.

8. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to affect or apply to any right, title, or interest of Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, or of any body or bodies politic or corporate, or of any person or persons other than and except such bodies politic or corporate and persons as are mentioned in this Act, and those claiming by, from, or under them respectively.

On breach of agreement, same may, on address of Parliament, be determined, and works resumed.

9. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may, on breach of any of the conditions, provisions, or stipulations of the said agreement, or of this Act, on address of both

both Houses of Parliament, declare the said agreement to be absolutely determined, and thenceforth the said outer harbor land, and all works connected therewith, and the deposit herein provided for shall be forfeited to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors.

10. No agreement shall be entered into pursuant to this Act unless, before the execution thereof by the Governor, the sum of Ten Thousand Pounds sterling shall be deposited by the promoters with the Treasurer of the province, to be retained by him as security for their due performance of such agreement. On the performance of the agreement, or on proof to the satisfaction of the said Treasurer of the expenditure of Two Hundred Thousand Pounds on the work, the deposit shall be returned to the promoters, together with any interest received by the Treasurer in respect thereof. Deposit.

11. Copies of any agreement executed by the Governor pursuant to this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the execution thereof by the Governor, if Parliament shall then be sitting, but if Parliament shall not then be sitting then within fourteen days after the next meeting of Parliament; and if addresses from both Houses be presented to the Governor within one calendar month after such copies shall have been laid before Parliament praying the Governor to disallow and cancel such agreement, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to disallow and cancel such agreement accordingly, and thereupon such agreement shall be void and as if the same had never been executed. Power of disallow-ance.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.
