

ANNO TRICESIMO PRIMO

ELIZABETHAE II REGINAE

A.D. 1982

No. 85 of 1982

An Act relating to the transfer interstate of prisoners.

[Assented to 7 October 1982]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act, 1982."

Commencement. 2. (1) This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation. (2) The Governor may, in a proclamation fixing a day for this Act to come into operation, suspend the operation of specified provisions of this Act until a subsequent day fixed in the proclamation, or a day to be fixed by subsequent proclamation.

Arrangement. 3. This Act is arranged as follows: PART I—PRELIMINARY PART II—TRANSFER FOR PRISONER'S WELFARE PART III—TRANSFER FOR TRIAL PART IV—TRANSFER BACK TO ORIGINAL STATE PART V—EFFECT OF ORDER OF TRANSFER PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS

Administration. 4. This Act shall be administered by the Chief Secretary.

Interpretation. 5. (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“arrest warrant” means a warrant to apprehend, a warrant to arrest or a warrant to commit a person to prison, but does not include—

(a) such a warrant, where the term of imprisonment which the person to be apprehended, arrested or committed under the warrant is liable to serve is default imprisonment;

or

(b) a warrant to secure the attendance of a witness:

“Attorney-General”—

(a) in relation to the Australian Capital Territory, means the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth;

and

(b) in relation to the Northern Territory, means the person holding ministerial office, as defined in section 4 (1) of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, who is, under that Act, designated for the time being as the holder of the office of Attorney-General:

“conditional release” means the release of a prisoner under Part VII of the Correctional Services Act, 1982:

“corresponding court of South Australia” in relation to a court of a participating State, means a court of South Australia that is, under an order in force under section 6 (1), declared to be a corresponding court in relation to the court of the participating State:

“corresponding Minister”, in relation to a participating State, means—

(a) except where the participating State is the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory—the Minister of the Crown of that participating State charged for the time being with the administration of the interstate law of that participating State;

(b) where the participating State is the Australian Capital Territory—the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth;

and

(c) where the participating State is the Northern Territory—the person holding ministerial office, as defined in section 4 (1) of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, who is charged for the time being with the administration of the interstate law of the Northern Territory:

“court of summary jurisdiction” means a court of summary jurisdiction constituted by a special magistrate appointed under the Justices Act, 1921-1982:

“default imprisonment” means imprisonment in default of—

(a) payment of any fine, penalty, costs or other sum of money of any kind imposed or ordered to be paid by any court, judge or justice;

or

(b) entering into a recognizance to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour:

PART I“Governor” —

(a) in relation to the Australian Capital Territory, means the Governor-General of Australia;

and

(b) in relation to the Northern Territory, means the Administrator, as defined in section 4 (1) of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth:

“indeterminate sentence” means a sentence of or order or direction for imprisonment or detention for life or during the pleasure of Her Majesty or during the pleasure of the Governor or the Governor of a participating State, and includes such a sentence, order or direction imposed, made or given by, or by the operation of, an Act or other law:

“interstate law” means a law that, under an order in force under section 6 (1), is declared to be an interstate law for the purposes of this Act:

“justice” means justice of the peace:

“order of transfer” means an order issued under section 8, 15, 16 (6), 20, 21 or 22 for the transfer of a prisoner to a participating State:

“participating State” means any State or Territory of the Commonwealth in which there is in force an interstate law:

“prison” means a prison as defined in section 4 of the Correctional Services Act, 1982:

“prison officer” means a person who is an officer of the Department of Correctional Services employed in a prison:

“prisoner” means a person serving a sentence of imprisonment in a prison in South Australia other than a person serving or sentenced to serve a sentence of imprisonment imposed for an offence against a law of the Commonwealth:

“section 27 sentence” means a sentence of imprisonment deemed by section 27 to have been imposed on a person by a court of South Australia:

“sentence of imprisonment” includes a sentence of penal servitude, a sentence by which default imprisonment is ordered, an indeterminate sentence and a section 27 sentence, but does not include a sentence of detention while it is being served in a training centre pursuant to the Children’s Protection and Young Offenders Act, 1979-1982:

“superintendent”, in relation to a prison, means the person for the time being in charge of the prison:

“Supreme Court” means the Supreme Court of South Australia.

(2) Where a justice of a participating State, in the exercise of his powers, issues a warrant of commitment while not constituting a court, the sentence of imprisonment imposed by the warrant shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been imposed by a court.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a sentence of imprisonment imposed, or originally imposed, by, or by the operation of, an Act or other law of a State or Territory shall, except as prescribed by regulations under this Act, be deemed to have been imposed, or originally imposed, by a court of that State or territory.

(4) A reference in this Act to an Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth includes a reference to an Act amending or replacing that Act.

6. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Governor may, by proclamation, declare that—

Corresponding courts and interstate laws.

(a) a law of a State (other than South Australia), the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory is an interstate law for the purposes of this Act;

and

(b) a specified court of South Australia or any court belonging to a specified class or description of courts of South Australia is, for the purposes of this Act, a corresponding court in relation to a specified court of a participating State or in relation to any court belonging to a specified class or description of courts of a participating State.

(2) A proclamation shall not be made under subsection (1) in respect of a law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth unless the Governor is satisfied that that law substantially corresponds to the provisions of this Act and contains provisions that are referred to in this Act as provisions of an interstate law that correspond to specified provisions of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a proclamation may be made under subsection (1) in respect of a law of the Australian Capital Territory if the Governor is satisfied that, if that law contained—

(a) provisions corresponding to the provisions contained in Part II and other provisions relating to the transfer of prisoners on grounds referred to in section 7;

and

(b) provisions that are referred to in this Act as provisions of an interstate law that correspond to specified provisions of this Act (those specified provisions being provisions corresponding to provisions referred to in paragraph (a)), that law would be a law referred to in subsection (2).

PART II

TRANSFER FOR PRISONER'S WELFARE

7. Where the Minister—

Proposal to transfer interstate.

(a) receives a written request made by a prisoner for the transfer of the prisoner to a participating State;

and

PART II

(b) is of the opinion that the prisoner to whom the request relates should be transferred to the participating State in the interests of the welfare of the prisoner, the Minister shall give to the corresponding Minister of the participating State a written request asking him to accept the transfer of the prisoner to the participating State.

Order of transfer.

8. (1) Where the Minister—

(a) has given to a corresponding Minister of a participating State a written request under section 7 in respect of a prisoner;

and

(b) has received from that corresponding Minister written notice (being a notice given under the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to section 10) of his consent to the transfer of the prisoner to that participating State, the Minister may issue an order for the transfer of the prisoner to that participating State.

(2) A decision to issue, or not to issue, an order under subsection (1) is not reviewable by a court or tribunal.

Repeated requests for transfer.

9. A request made by a prisoner for his transfer to a participating State need not be entertained by the Minister if it is made within one year of a similar request made by the prisoner.

Receipt of request for transfer to South Australia.

10. Where the Minister receives a written request given under the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to section 7 asking him to accept the transfer of an imprisoned person to South Australia, the Minister shall either refuse to consent, or consent, to the transfer and shall give to the Minister by whom the written request was given written notice of his refusal or consent.

Reports.

11. (1) For the purpose of forming an opinion or exercising any discretion under this Part, the Minister may inform himself as he thinks fit and, in particular, may have regard to reports of parole and prison authorities of South Australia and of any participating State.

(2) Reports of parole and prison authorities may be sent to a corresponding Minister for the purpose of assisting him to form an opinion or to exercise a discretion under the interstate law administered by him.

PART III

PART III

TRANSFER FOR TRIAL

Request for transfer of prisoner to participating State.

12. (1) Where a person who is the subject of an arrest warrant issued in accordance with the law of a participating State is a prisoner and the Attorney-General receives—

(a) from the Attorney-General of the participating State a written request given under the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to section 18, accompanied by a copy of the warrant;

or

(b) a written request made by the prisoner to the Minister and referred to the Attorney-General, being in either case a request for the transfer of the prisoner to the participating State to be dealt with according to law, the Attorney-General shall either refuse to consent, or consent, to the transfer and shall give to the Attorney-General of the participating State or to the Minister, as the case may be, written notice of his refusal or consent.

(2) Where the Minister receives a written request made by a prisoner for the transfer of the prisoner to a participating State to be dealt with according to law, the Minister shall refer the written request to the Attorney-General.

(3) A request made by a prisoner for his transfer to a participating State need not be referred by the Minister to the Attorney-General if it is made within one year of a similar request made by the prisoner.

13. (1) An order of transfer shall be issued under this Part only if—

consents.

(a) the Attorney-General has, in writing, consented to the transfer of the prisoner to whom the order relates to the participating State;

and

(b) the Attorney-General of the participating State has, in writing, either consented to or requested that transfer.

(2) A certificate signed by a prescribed officer certifying that any consent or request required under subsection (1) for the transfer of a prisoner to a participating State specified in the certificate has been given or made is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the consent or request has been given or made.

14. (1) A court of summary jurisdiction, upon proof to its satisfaction that the conditions precedent specified in section 13 (1) have been complied with, shall by order in writing direct the superintendent of the prison where the prisoner to whom the certificate relates is then imprisoned to bring the prisoner before a court of summary jurisdiction specified in the order on a date and at a time so specified for determination as to whether an order of transfer shall be issued.

Prisoner to be brought before court of summary
jurisdiction.

(2) Notice of an order made under subsection (1) shall be served on the Attorney-General and on the prisoner to whom the order relates.

(3) At a hearing for the purpose of determining whether an order for the transfer of a prisoner shall be issued—

(a) the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner;

and

(b) the Attorney-General shall be entitled to appear or be represented.

15. The court of summary jurisdiction before which the prisoner is brought pursuant to an order made under section 14 (1) shall—

Order of transfer.

PART III

(a) issue an order for the transfer of the prisoner to the participating State specified in the certificate issued in accordance with section 13 (2) in respect of the prisoner;

or

(b) if the court, on the application of the prisoner, is satisfied that it would be harsh or oppressive or not in the interests of justice to transfer the prisoner to that participating State or that the trivial nature of the charge or complaint against the prisoner does not warrant the transfer, refuse to issue such an order.

Review of decision of court
of summary
jurisdiction.

16. (1) Where the Attorney-General, the Attorney-General of the participating State or the prisoner is dissatisfied with the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction under section 15, the Attorney-General, the Attorney-General of the participating State or the prisoner, as the case may be, may, within fourteen days of the decision, apply to the Supreme Court for a review of the decision and the Supreme Court may review the decision.

(2) The prisoner shall be entitled to be present or be represented by a legal practitioner at the review and for that purpose any court or a person authorized by the rules of the Supreme Court may by order in writing direct the superintendent of the prison where the prisoner is then imprisoned to bring the prisoner to the place of the review specified in the order on a date and at a time so specified.

(3) The Attorney-General and the Attorney-General of the participating State shall be entitled to appear or be represented at the review.

(4) The review of the decision shall be by way of rehearing on the evidence, if any, given before the court of summary jurisdiction and on any evidence in addition to the evidence so given.

(5) Upon the review of a decision, the Supreme court may confirm the decision or quash the decision and substitute a new decision in its stead.

(6) For the purpose of giving effect to any such substituted decision the Supreme Court may issue an order for the transfer of the prisoner to the appropriate participating State.

Prisoner brought to be returned to custody.

17. Where an order is made under section 14 (1) or 16 (2)—

(a) the superintendent to whom it is directed shall execute the order or may charge any prison officer or member of the police force with the execution of the order;

and

(b) the prisoner shall, while the order is being executed, be kept in the custody of the superintendent, prison officer or member of the police force acting under or in execution of the order, who shall in due course return the prisoner to the custody from which he has been brought.

Request for transfer of imprisoned person to South Australia.

18. Where a person who is the subject of an arrest warrant issued in accordance with the laws of South Australia is imprisoned in a participating State, the Attorney-General may give to the Attorney-General of the participating State a written request, accompanied by a copy of the warrant, for the transfer of the person to South Australia to be dealt with according to law.

19. Where—

- (a) a person is imprisoned in a participating State;
- (b) he is the subject of an arrest warrant issued in accordance with the laws of South Australia;

and

- (c) the Attorney-General of the participating State has given a notice, in writing, to the Attorney-General that he has consented to a request made by the person to be transferred to South Australia to enable him to be dealt with according to law, the Attorney-General shall either refuse to consent, or consent, to the transfer and shall give to the Attorney-General of the participating State notice, in writing, of his refusal or consent.

PART III

Request for transfer to South Australia by imprisoned person.

PART IVTRANSFER BACK TO ORIGINAL STATE*PART IV

20. Where a person is transferred to South Australia from a participating State pursuant to an order issued under the provision of the interstate law of that participating State that corresponds to section 15 or 16 (6) and, so far as the Minister is aware, every complaint or information alleging any offence by the person against the law of South Australia has been finally dealt with according to law and as a result—

Return of prisoner to participating State if no sentence or shorter sentence in South Australia.

- (a) the person did not become liable to serve any sentence of imprisonment in South Australia;

or

- (b) the person did become liable to serve in South Australia one or more sentences of imprisonment under which the period of imprisonment remaining to be served is shorter than the period of imprisonment remaining to be served by him under any section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences,

the Minister shall, subject to section 23, issue an order for the transfer of the person to the participating State.

21. Where a person is transferred to South Australia from a participating State pursuant to an order issued under the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to section 8, 15 or 16 (6) and—

Transfer to attend appeal.

- (a) so far as the Minister is aware, every complaint or information alleging any offence by the person against the law of South Australia has been finally dealt with;
- (b) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment;
- (c) under a law of the participating State the person is entitled to be present at proceedings in the participating State with respect to—
 - (i) any application for leave or other proceeding preliminary or incidental to an appeal against or review of;

PART IV

or

(ii) an appeal against or review of, a conviction of him, or sentence of imprisonment imposed on him, or both;

and

(d) the person applies in writing to the Minister to be present at the proceedings, the Minister shall, unless in his opinion it is contrary to the public interest to do so, issue an order for the transfer of the person to the participating State.

Transfer after attending appeal.

22. Where—

(a) a person is, pursuant to an order issued under the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to section 21, transferred to South Australia from a participating State to enable him to attend proceedings in South Australia;

(b) those proceedings (including any retrial that may have been ordered and any appeal or review arising from those proceedings or any such retrial) have been determined;

and

(c) either—

(i) the person is liable to serve a section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences and is not liable to serve in South Australia any other sentence of imprisonment;

or

(ii) the period of imprisonment remaining to be served by the person under any section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences is longer than any period of imprisonment which he is liable to serve in South Australia under any other sentence or sentences of imprisonment, the Minister shall, subject to section 23, issue an order for the transfer of the person to the participating State.

Provisions ancillary to sections 20, 21 and 22.

23. (1) The provisions of section 20 or 22 do not apply in respect of a person if—

(a) the Minister receives a written request made by the person, being a request for the person to serve his imprisonment in South Australia, and the Minister and the corresponding Minister of the participating State from which the person was transferred agree in writing that it is in the interests of the welfare of the person that he should serve his imprisonment in South Australia;

or

(b) an indeterminate sentence (not being a section 27 sentence) is imposed upon the person by a court of South Australia.

(2) For the purpose of sections 20 and 21, a complaint or information alleging an offence by a person is finally dealt with if—

(a) the person is tried for the offence and—

(i) the time or extended time, if any, fixed by or under any Act, within which an appeal against, or an application for the review of, the decision given on the trial may be lodged, or within which a retrial may be ordered, has expired;

and

(ii) any appeal or application for review in respect of the decision given on the trial has been determined or withdrawn and proceedings in respect of any retrial and any decision given on the retrial have been concluded;

or

(b) the complaint or information is withdrawn or a nolle prosequi or similar instrument is filed in respect of the offence.

(3) For the purpose of determining which of the periods referred to in section 20 (b) or 22 (c) (ii) is the shorter or longer—

(a) any entitlement to remission or conditional release shall be disregarded;

(b) a finite period of imprisonment shall be treated as being shorter than a period to be served under an indeterminate sentence;

(c) the expression “sentences of imprisonment” in section 20 (b), and the expression “other sentence or sentences of imprisonment” in section 22 (c) (ii), include a section 27 sentence that was originally imposed by a court of South Australia;

(d) the expression “section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences” in sections 20 (b) and 22 (c) (ii) does not include a section 27 sentence that was originally imposed by a court of South Australia;

and

(e) where a sentence of imprisonment imposed upon a person in South Australia (not being a section 27 sentence) is cumulative with a section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences originally imposed by a court other than a court of South Australia, that section 27 sentence or those section 27 sentences shall be deemed—

(i) not to be a section 27 sentence or section 27 sentences, as the case may be;

and

(ii) to be a sentence or sentences, as the case may be, which the person is liable to serve in South Australia.

PART V

EFFECT OF ORDER OF TRANSFER

24. (1) An order of transfer—

(a) shall direct the superintendent of the prison where the prisoner who is the subject of the order is then imprisoned to deliver the prisoner into the custody of an escort and shall be sufficient authority to the superintendent so to deliver the prisoner;

PART V

and

- (b) authorizes the escort to take and keep custody of the prisoner for the purpose of conveying him from South Australia to such prison in a participating State as is specified in the order and there delivering him into the custody of the person for the time being in charge of that prison.

(2) A reference in subsection (1) to an escort is a reference to a prison officer, a member of the police force or a person appointed by the Minister by an instrument in writing to be an escort for the purposes of this Act, or any two or more of them.

(3) Where—

- (a) under an interstate law an order is issued for the transfer to South Australia of a person imprisoned in the participating State where the order is issued;

and

- (b) pursuant to the order an escort brings the person into South Australia, the escort, while in South Australia, is authorized to hold, take and keep custody of the person for the purpose of conveying him to such prison in South Australia as is specified in the order and there delivering him into the custody of the superintendent.

Transfer of
sentence with prisoner.

25. Where pursuant to an order of transfer a prisoner is conveyed to a participating State specified in the order, then from the time the prisoner arrives in the participating State every sentence of imprisonment imposed upon the prisoner by a court of South Australia, including a section 27 sentence, ceases to have effect in South Australia except—

- (a) for the purpose of any appeal against or review of any conviction, judgment or sentence made, imposed or fixed by a court of South Australia;

- (b) in relation to any period of imprisonment served by the prisoner in South Australia;

or

- (c) in relation to the remittance of money to the Minister which is paid in discharge or partial discharge of a sentence of default imprisonment originally imposed upon the prisoner by a court of South Australia.

Information to be sent to the participating State.

26. (1) Where pursuant to an order of transfer a prisoner is conveyed to a participating State, the Minister shall cause to be sent to the corresponding Minister of the participating State or to some person for the time being designated by him—

- (a) the order of transfer;

- (b) the warrant of, or other authority for, commitment for any sentence of imprisonment which the prisoner was, immediately before he left South Australia, serving or liable to serve;

- (c) a report relating to the prisoner, which shall contain such information and be accompanied by such documents available in South Australia as appear to be likely to be of assistance to any court, authority or officer in the participating State and shall include details of convictions, sentences of imprisonment, non-parole periods, periods of imprisonment served, entitlements to remission or conditional release and grants of parole and a copy of any record relating to the prisoner's conduct;

and

- (d) details, accompanied by any relevant orders or other documents, of any subsequent variations to the information provided in accordance with this subsection, whether arising from any appeal or review or otherwise.

(2) A reference in subsection (1) to an order or other document is a reference to either the original or a copy certified in the prescribed manner.

27. Where under an interstate law an order is issued for the transfer to South Australia of a person imprisoned in a participating State and the person is brought into South Australia pursuant to the order, then from the time the person arrives in South Australia—

Sentence deemed to have been imposed in this State.

- (a) any sentence of imprisonment imposed upon him by a court of the participating State (including any sentence of imprisonment deemed by the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to this section to have been imposed by a court of the participating State) shall be deemed to have been imposed upon him;

and

- (b) any direction or order given or made by a court of the participating State with respect to when that sentence shall commence shall, so far as practicable, be deemed to have been given or made, by a corresponding court of South Australia and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, shall be given effect to in South Australia, and the laws of South Australia shall apply, as if such a court had had power to impose the sentence and give or make the direction or order, if any, and did in fact impose the sentence and give or make the direction or order, if any.

28. (1) Where under a law of a participating State there has been fixed by a court in respect of a section 27 sentence a minimum term of imprisonment (being a shorter term than the section 27 sentence), during which minimum term the person subject to the sentence is not eligible to be released on parole, then, except as otherwise provided in this Act, that minimum term shall be deemed likewise to have been fixed by the corresponding court of South Australia.

Provisions relating to section 27 sentences.

(2) Where a section 27 sentence or a minimum term deemed under subsection (1) to have been fixed by a corresponding court of South Australia—

- (a) is varied or quashed on a review by or appeal to a court of the participating State where the sentence or minimum term was imposed or fixed, the sentence or minimum term shall be deemed to have been varied to the same extent, or to have been quashed, by a corresponding court of South Australia;

or

- (b) otherwise is varied or ceases to have effect as a result of action taken by any person or authority in that participating State, the sentence or minimum term shall be deemed to have been varied to the same extent, or to have ceased to have effect, as a result of action taken by an appropriate person or authority in South Australia.

(3) Nothing in this Act operates to permit in South Australia any appeal against or review of any conviction, judgment, sentence or minimum term made, imposed or fixed in relation to a person by a court of a participating State.

(4) Where a section 27 sentence is an indeterminate sentence requiring that the person who is the subject of the sentence be detained during the pleasure of Her Majesty or during the pleasure of the Governor of the participating State in which the sentence was imposed, the person shall be detained during the Governor's pleasure.

(5) The Governor—

(a) may exercise the royal prerogative of mercy in favour of a person who is subject to a section 27 sentence as if the person were—

(i) an offender convicted in a court of South Australia;

or

(ii) an offender convicted within South Australia before a judge or magistrate of South Australia;

and

(b) in exercising that prerogative, may give effect to any indication given by the Governor of the participating State in which the sentence of imprisonment was imposed upon that person as to what the Governor of the participating State may have done had the person not been transferred to South Australia.

(6) A person who is subject to a section 27 sentence—

(a) shall be deemed to have served in South Australia such period of the section 27 sentence as, up to the time of his transfer to South Australia, he had served in respect of that sentence in a participating State (including any period deemed by the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to this paragraph to have been served in a participating State and any period spent in custody while being transferred to a prison in South Australia);

(b) shall, upon his transfer to South Australia, be credited with an entitlement to a period of conditional release equal to, and in substitution for, the period of remission of sentence (if any) to which he may have been entitled immediately before his transfer to South Australia (including any remission of sentence deemed by an interstate law to have been earned in a participating State);

and

(c) shall, subject to and in accordance with the Correctional Services Act, 1982, be entitled to earn further entitlements to conditional release in respect of that sentence as from the day of his arrival in South Australia.

29. (1) Where a section 27 sentence is a sentence by which default imprisonment was ordered and any portion of the amount in default of payment of which the default imprisonment was ordered is paid by or on behalf of the prisoner who is the subject of the sentence to the superintendent of the prison in which he is imprisoned—

- (a) the term of default imprisonment shall be reduced by a period which bears to the term of default imprisonment the same proportion as the portion paid bears to the total amount that was payable and, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment, the prisoner shall be entitled to be released on the expiry of the reduced period;

and

- (b) the portion so paid shall be remitted by the superintendent to the corresponding Minister of the participating State where the sentence, by which default imprisonment was ordered, was originally imposed.

(2) Where a section 27 sentence is a sentence by which default imprisonment was ordered and, on a review by or an appeal to a court of the participating State where the sentence was imposed or as a result of any other action taken by any person or authority in that participating State, the amount in default of payment of which the default imprisonment was ordered is reduced or the obligation to pay that amount is quashed—

- (a) the term of default imprisonment shall, where the amount is reduced, be reduced by a period which bears to the term of default imprisonment the same proportion as the amount of the reduction bears to the total amount that was payable and, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment that may be imposed on him, the prisoner shall be entitled to be released on the expiry of that reduced period;

- (b) the prisoner shall, where the obligation to pay the amount is quashed, thereupon, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment that may be imposed on him, be entitled to be released.

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS

PART VI

30. The Minister or the Attorney-General shall, when he makes a decision in respect of a prisoner for the purposes of this Act, advise that prisoner of that decision.

Notification to prisoners of certain decisions.

31. (1) Where, in relation to a person imprisoned in a participating State, an order is made under an interstate law for the transfer of that person to another participating State and in the course of conveying the person to the participating State pursuant to the order an escort brings the person into South Australia, then—

Lawful custody for transit through South Australia.

- (a) while in South Australia the escort is authorized to hold, take and keep custody of the person for the purpose of conveying him from South Australia to such prison in the participating State as is specified in the order and there delivering him into the custody of the person for the time being in charge of the prison;

PART VI

and

(b) any superintendent is authorized upon—

(i) the request of the escort;

and

(ii) delivery to the superintendent by the escort of a copy of the order of transfer certified by the escort to be such a copy, to receive the person and to detain him in custody as though he were a prisoner for such time as the escort requests and is reasonably necessary for the purpose of executing the order.

(2) Where a superintendent has the custody of a person under subsection (1) (b), the superintendent is authorized, upon the request of an escort and production by the escort of the order of transfer relating to the person, to deliver the person into the custody of the escort.

Escape from custody of person being transferred.

32. (1) A person in the custody of an escort pursuant to section 31 who escapes from that custody may be apprehended without warrant by the escort, any member of the police force or any other person.

(2) Where a person in custody pursuant to section 31—

(a) has escaped and been apprehended;

or

(b) has attempted to escape,

that person may be taken before a justice who may, notwithstanding the terms of any order of transfer issued under an interstate law, by warrant under his hand—

(c) order the person to be returned to the participating State in which the order of transfer under which that person was being conveyed at the time of the escape or attempt to escape was issued;

and

(d) for that purpose, order the person to be delivered to an escort.

(3) A warrant issued under subsection (2) may be executed according to its tenor.

(4) A person who is the subject of a warrant issued under subsection (2) may be detained in custody as a prisoner until he is delivered into the custody of an escort in accordance with that warrant or until the expiration of a period of seven days from the issuing of the warrant, whichever first occurs.

(5) If a person who is the subject of a warrant issued under subsection (2) is not, in accordance with the warrant, delivered into the custody of an escort within a period of seven days from the issuing of the warrant, the warrant shall have no further effect.

(6) A reference in subsection (2), (4) or (5) to an escort in relation to a person who was, at the time of his escape or attempt to escape, being conveyed under an order of transfer issued in a participating State is a reference to—

- (a) the escort who had the custody of that person pursuant to that order;
 - (b) a prison officer or a member of the police force of the participating State;
- or
- (c) a person appointed by the corresponding Minister of the participating State by an instrument in writing to be an escort for the purpose of conveying that person to the participating State, or any two or more of them.

33. (1) Any person who, being a person in custody under an order of transfer, escapes or attempts to escape from that custody while he is not within South Australia or the participating State to which he was being conveyed under that order is guilty of an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, to be served after the expiration of any term of imprisonment or detention to which he was subject at the time of his escape or attempt to escape.

Escape from custody—penalty.

(2) A person who, being a person in custody under an order of transfer, escapes from that custody is not, for any time that he is unlawfully at large, serving his sentence of imprisonment.

34. Any court of summary jurisdiction may revoke an order of transfer if it appears to the court, on application made to it under this section by the holder of a prescribed office or position or by a person who belongs to a prescribed class of persons, that the person in respect of whom the order was issued has, in the course of his being conveyed in accordance with that order, committed—

Revocation of order of transfer on escape from custody.

- (a) the offence of escaping or attempting to escape;
- or
- (b) any other offence,

whether—

- (c) the offence was an offence against the law of South Australia or of a participating State;
- or
- (d) a charge has been laid or a conviction secured in respect of the offence or not.

35. The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act, or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

Regulations.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

D. B. DUNSTAN, Governor
