[Assented to 17th October, 1940.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows :

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1940". Short titles.

(2) The Superannuation Act, 1926-1938, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the "Superannuation Act, 1926-1940".

(3) The Superannuation Act, 1926-1938, is hereinafter called "the principal Act".

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act and that Act and this Act may be cited as one Act. Incorporation.

3. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 26d :— Enactment of s. 26e of principal Act.

Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1940.

shall have the same right or obligation to increase his contributions to the fund as he would have had under subsection (4) of section 24 of this Act if he had actually received salary at the increased rate as from the time when, in the board's opinion, he would have become entitled thereto.

(2) Where a contributor has a right under this section to increase contributions, he shall be deemed to have elected to exercise the right unless and until he notifies the board to the contrary. A notice that a contributor elects not to exercise a right under this section may be given at any time not later than three months after the contributor returns to duty as an employee upon the completion of the period of the leave of absence during which the right arose.

(3) Where a contributor is obliged, or elects, or is deemed to have elected, to increase his contributions to the fund in the circumstances set out in this section, the Treasurer shall, on behalf of the contributor, pay into the Fund the amount of the increase in such contributions, in respect of the period during which the contributor serves in the military, naval or air force.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

C. M. BARCLAY-HARVEY, Governor.
