

ANNO DECIMO QUARTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1923.

No. 1552.

An Act to amend the Second-hand Dealers Act, 1919,
and for other purposes.

[Assented to, October 3rd, 1923.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Second-hand Dealers Act Amendment Act, 1923." Short titles.

(2) The Second-hand Dealers Act, 1919 (hereinafter called "the principal Act"), and this Act may be cited together as the "Second-hand Dealers Acts, 1919 and 1923." No. 1401 of 1919.

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act, and that Act and this Act shall be read as one Act. Incorporation with principal Act.

3. (1) Any licensee who desires to renew his licence may give or send by post to the clerk of the Local Court nearest to the premises in respect of which the licence was granted and to the Commissioner of Police notice in the prescribed form of his intention to apply for such renewal. Such notice shall be given or sent at least twenty-eight days before the day specified in such notice as the day upon which the licensee intends to make the said application. Second-hand dealers' licences may be renewed. Cf. Vic., 3064, 1920, s. 2.

(2) If the Commissioner of Police proposes, at the hearing of any such application, to show cause why such application should not be granted, he shall give to the licensee at least seven days' notice notice of his objection to the application, and of the grounds thereof. Such notice shall be given by being delivered or served personally or by being sent by post by letter addressed to the licensee at the premises in respect of which the licence was granted.

Second-hand Dealers Act Amendment Act.—1923.

(3) The Local Court to which such application is made shall consider the application and any objections thereto, and may grant or refuse the application upon any ground which, entirely in the exercise of its discretion, it deems sufficient.

(4) No licensee shall be required to attend the Court for the purpose of procuring a renewal of his licence unless notice of objection to the application, stating the grounds thereof, has been given as provided by this section.

(5) The renewal of any licence shall be in the prescribed form, and be made in the prescribed manner.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act, any licence renewed as provided by this section shall, unless sooner revoked or cancelled as provided by the principal Act, remain in force up to and including the thirty-first day of December next after the day on which, but for such renewal, it would have expired.

(7) Licences may be renewed as provided by this section from time to time.

Consequential amendments.

4. The principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

- (a) by inserting after the word “grant” in the second line of section 3 thereof the words “or renewal”:
- (b) by inserting after the word “grant” in section 7 thereof the words “or renewal”:
- (c) by inserting after the word “licence” in the first line of section 12 thereof the words “or renewal”, and after the word “licence” the first time it occurs in the fourth line of the same section the words “renewal of a licence”:
- (d) by inserting after the word “granted” in the second line of section 14 thereof the word “renewed”:
- (e) by inserting after the word “licences” in the seventeenth line of section 23 thereof the words “for the renewal of licences”, and after the word “licences” the second time it occurs in the eighteenth line of the same section the words “of renewals of licences”.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

TOM BRIDGES, Governor.
