

ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1905.

*****

No. 879.

An Act to Validate certain Assessments made by District Councils.

[Assented to, October 5th, 1905.]

WHEREAS by section 133 of "The District Councils Act, 1887," as amended by section 3 of "The District Councils Amendment Act, 1904," it is provided that District Councils shall, whenever they may consider it necessary for the purposes of the said "The District Councils Act, 1887," cause an assessment to be made of all ratable property within their districts according to the principles following:—As to any building and all land that may be occupied therewith wherever situate, and all land situate outside the limits of any township, at four-fifths of the gross annual rental at which the whole would let for a term of seven years, or at five per centum on the capital value; and whereas certain Councils have, for the twelve months ending the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and six, adopted the assessment heretofore made according to the principles laid down in section 133 of the said "The District Councils Act, 1887," before such section was amended as aforesaid; and whereas it is desirable to validate and make such assessments legal and effectual—Be it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The District Councils Assessments Validating Act, 1905." Short title.

2. In every case where a District Council has made or adopted an assessment of the ratable property within its district for the Certain assessments validated.
