EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1902.

*****

No. 793.

An Act to amend "The Legitimation Act, 1898."

[Assented to, November 13th, 1902.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as "The Legitimation Amendment Act, 1902," and shall be incorporated with "The Legitimation Act, 1898," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act." Short title.

2. The registration under the principal Act of children whose parents have intermarried either before or since the passing of the principal Act, or shall hereafter intermarry, may be made or effected at any time after the date or latest time specified for that purpose in section 6 of the principal Act; and such registration shall thereupon be valid and effectual for all the purposes of the principal Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 6 thereof: Provided that the parents of such children shall—

Registration after periods mentioned in the principal Act.

- (a) Make application, in the form of the First Schedule hereto, to the Special Magistrate of any Local Court:
- (b) Give proof, upon oath, to the satisfaction of such Special Magistrate, that they are the parents of the children named in such application :
- (c) Obtain from such Special Magistrate, and produce to and file with a registrar for the registration of births at the time of the registration of such children under the principal Act, a certificate of proof of such parentage in the form or to the effect of the Second Schedule hereto :

(d) In

(d) In all respects comply with the requirements of the principal Act other than those in section 6 thereof.

Magistrate shall administer oath.

3. Upon the hearing of any such application the Special Magistrate shall administer oaths to and examine the applicants and such other witnesses as may present themselves for examination in the same manner as if the application were an action in a Local Court.

Hearing of application.

4. All applications to a Special Magistrate under this Act may be heard in private, but the Special Magistrate may authorise or direct the attendance of any interested person thereat.

Amendment of section 2 of Act 703 of 1898.

5. The word "property" in line 9 of section 2 of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the word "person" substituted in place thereof.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

S. J. WAY, Lieutenant-Governor.
