

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO ET QUINQUAGESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1886.

No. 377.

An Act to amend "The Petersburg and Border
Railway Act, 1884."

[Assented to, November 17th, 1886.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Petersburg and Border Railway Act, 1884," by providing for a deviation in the line from that shown in the plans deposited for the purposes of the said Act in the offices of the Surveyor-General, at Adelaide, and signed "H. C. Mais, Engineer-in-Chief," and by providing for the acquisition by the Commissioner of Railways of such lands as may be necessary for such purpose: And whereas plans showing the said deviation together with the book of reference thereto, have for the purposes of this Act been deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, at Adelaide, and signed "H. C. Mais, Engineer-in-Chief, dated 22/7/86."—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Section 2 of "The Petersburg and Border Railway Act, 1884," shall be read as if the words "134th milepost" were inserted in place of "146th milepost."

Termination may be at about 134th milepost.

2. The Commissioner of Railways may take possession of the lands delineated in the said plans deposited in the offices of the Surveyor-General as aforesaid, dated 22/7/86, and thereon construct the line of railway by way of deviation, according as such deviation is delineated in the said plans; and may make and maintain upon the land so taken so much of the work authorised by the said Act, and Commissioner may make deviation, and take land, &c.

The Petersburg and Border Railway Amendment Act.—1886.
