

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1904.

No. 855.

An Act to amend the "Places of Public Entertainment Act."

[Assented to, November 24th, 1904.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Places of Public Entertainment Amendment Act, 1904," and shall be incorporated and read as one with the "Places of Public Entertainment Act." Short title and incorporation.

2. Section 3 of the "Places of Public Entertainment Act" is hereby repealed. Repeal.

3. After the passing of this Act no place of public entertainment shall be open to the public unless a licence shall first have been obtained in respect thereof, and no licence shall be granted for any place of public entertainment unless and until the Mayor of the Municipality or Chairman of the District Council, as the case may be, to whom application for a licence shall be made, shall be satisfied that the applicant has made in respect of such place of public entertainment reasonable provision— Places to be licensed.

- (a) Against risk from fire ;
- (b) To extinguish fires ; and
- (c) For safe and sufficient means of egress for the public in case of fire :

The Places of Public Entertainment Amendment Act.—1904.

Provided, as regards any place of public entertainment heretofore licensed, the Mayor or Chairman, as the case may be, shall give to the applicant for a licence reasonable time to comply with any requisition made in respect of (a), (b), or (c), and in the meantime the Mayor or Chairman, as the case may be, shall grant a licence for such period as may be necessary to comply with such requisition.

Inspector.

4. The Chief Secretary shall appoint an inspector, and shall assign to such inspector any duty consistent with this Act, including the inspection of buildings the property of the Government and used for purposes of public entertainment; and the proprietor shall at all reasonable times permit the inspector to enter, inspect, and examine any building.

Applications for annual licences, how dealt with.

5. Every application for an annual licence made under section 4 of the "Places of Public Entertainment Act," shall be lodged with the clerk of the Municipality or District in which the place sought to be licensed is situated, and shall not be dealt with until one meeting at least of the Council of such Municipality or District, as the case may be, shall have been held after the lodging of such application; and a licence shall not be granted if a motion adverse to such application shall be carried by such Council.

Government property.

6. All public buildings the property of the Government, and used for the purposes of public entertainment, shall be under the control of the Chief Secretary, who shall, in respect of such places of public entertainment, make reasonable provision as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 3 hereof.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE, Governor.
