ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO ET VICESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1863.

No. 14.

An Act to empower the Corporation of Adelaide to lease a portion of the Park Lands as a Public Racecourse.

Ref'd Private Adelaide '92

[Assented to, 12th November, 1863.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to enable the Corporation of the City of Adelaide to lease a portion of the Park Lands as a Public Racecourse—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. The Corporation of the City of Adelaide may lease to three or more trustees, and for any periods not exceeding twenty-one years, a convenient portion, not exceeding one hundred and thirty acres, of the East Park Lands, to be held by such trustees upon trust, to appropriate and maintain the same as and for a racecourse, upon and subject to such terms and conditions, and with such powers, as to the erection of booths on such ground, during the time the same may be used for racing purposes, and for admission to any grand stand to be erected thereon, and also for the admission of, or refusal of admission, to any persons, horses, or other animals, or any vehicles to such portion of the Park Lands, when so leased as aforesaid, as to the said Corporation may seem fit, with power to appoint new trustees as occasion may arise, and to insert in any such lease any other clauses, powers, provisions, or limitations, as may be considered necessary for the management or maintenance of the said racecourse.

Power to Corporation to lease Park Lands
as racecourse.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
