No. 8 of 1952.

AN ACT to amend the Forestry Act 1920.
[22 April, 1952.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Forestry Act 1952. Short title and citation.

(2) The Forestry Act 1920, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section sixteen of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting subsection (1) thereof and substituting therefor the following subsection:— Purchase or resumption of land.

“ (1) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Commission, may, subject to the consent of Parliament, purchase any land which is required for any of the purposes of this Act.”;

(b) by omitting from subsection (2) thereof the words “or acquiring”;

(c) by inserting in the proviso to subsection (2) thereof, before the word “Commission”, the words “Minister may, on the recommendation of the”, and by omitting from that proviso the words “or acquire” and the words “or acquisition”, respectively;

(d) by omitting from subsection (3) thereof the words “or acquired” (twice occurring);

(e) by omitting from subsection (4) thereof all the words after the word “may” to the end of that subsection and substituting therefor the words “, if the Commission so recommends, be sold by the Minister as he may think fit”; and

(f) by adding at the end of that section the following subsection:—

“(6) Subject to the directions of the Treasurer, the proceeds of the sale of any land which is sold pursuant to this section shall be credited to such of the funds or accounts under the control of, or kept by, the Commission for the purposes of this Act as the Minister may approve.”.

Validation of certain acquisitions,
&c.

3—(1) Every acquisition of land made by the Commission for the purpose of a State forest, or for the purpose of providing access thereto or to any timber reserve, which would have been valid if the Forestry Act 1946 had not been enacted and which was completed before the commencement of this section shall be effective to vest the land in the Crown for the purpose of the acquisition and any compensation paid or payable in respect thereof shall be deemed, for all purposes, to have been lawfully paid, or, as the case made be, to be lawfully payable.

(2) Any acquisition begun by the Commission for any purpose mentioned in subsection (1) of this section but which is not completed before the commencement of this section may be completed as if the Forestry Act 1946 had not been enacted, and, upon being completed, shall have the same effect for all purposes as if it were an acquisition to which subsection (1) of this section relates.
