AN ACT to amend the Industrial Development Act 1954 by making provision for Trade Promotion Officers, Trade Officers, and Development Officers and to enable loans to be made to assist industry.

[11 December 1975]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Industrial Development Act 1975. Short title and citation.

(2) The Industrial Development Act 1954, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 The Principal Act is amended by inserting the following section in Part II after section 7:—

Trade
Promotion
Officers, Trade
Officers, and Development
Officers.

“7A—(1) The Governor may appoint persons to be Trade Promotion Officers, Trade Officers, or Development Officers for the purposes of this Act.

“(2) Persons appointed under this section shall in each case be appointed for such terms not exceeding 5 years as the Governor may think fit and specify at the time of appointment, and they may be re-appointed.

“(3) A person appointed under this section shall be paid such salary as the Governor may determine in his particular case and as may be specified in the instrument of his appointment.

“(4) Persons appointed under this section shall be entitled to such leave of absence and to be paid such travelling and other allowances as may be prescribed.

“(5) Persons appointed under this section are not, as such, subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act 1973 but if an officer of the Public Service is appointed to be a Trade Promotion Officer, a Trade Officer, or a Development Officer he is entitled to retain all his existing and accruing rights as if his service as such were service as an officer of the Public Service.

“(6) A person appointed under this section, during the term of his office, shall, except when on leave granted pursuant to this Act, devote the whole of his time, whether in this State or elsewhere, to the duties of his office.”.

Powers of Minister.

3 Section 8 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by transposing the word “and” from the end of subsection (1) (a) to the end of subsection (1) (b); and

(b) by inserting in that subsection, after paragraph (b), the following paragraph:—

“(c) make loans on such terms and conditions as are approved by the Treasurer for the purpose of assisting industry carried on in this State.”.
