LICENSING.

No. 24 of 1969.

AN ACT to amend the Licensing Act 1932.

[5 December 1969.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Licensing Act 1969.

(2) The Licensing Act 1932, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section twenty-four C of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsections:— Payment of percentage fees.

“(3) If a percentage fee or an instalment of a percentage fee is not paid at the expiration of a period of fourteen days after the day on which it should have been paid, the holder of the licence for which the fee is payable is liable to pay an additional fee comprising an amount equal to ten per cent of the amount of the unpaid percentage fee or unpaid instalment of a percentage fee, as the case may be.

“(4) Where the holder of a licence is not the owner or mortgagee of the premises to which the licence relates, either the owner or mortgagee may pay to the Treasurer the amount of an unpaid percentage fee or instalment of a percentage fee payable for the licence, together with the additional fee (if any) payable pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, and such a payment by the owner or mortgagee shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be payment by the holder of the licence.”.

3 Section fifty-three of the Principal Act is amended— Objections.

- (a) by inserting in paragraph (i) of subsection (2), before the word “remains”, the words “or the additional fee (if any) payable by him pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C,”; and
- (b) by inserting in subsection (2A), before the word “remains”, the words “or the additional fee (if any) payable in relation to the premises pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C,”.

4 Section seventy-three of the Principal Act is amended by inserting in subsection (2), before the word “remains”, the words “or the additional fee (if any) payable by the club pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C,”. Who may object.

5 Section seventy-nine of the Principal Act is amended— Fees payable for certificates.

- (a) by inserting after paragraph (e) of subsection (5) the following paragraph:—

“(ea) a reference to the owner of premises shall be construed as a reference to the committee of the club;” and

- (b) by omitting subsection (6) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

“(6) If a percentage fee or an instalment of a percentage fee payable by a club for a certificate of registration under this Act (together with the additional fee, if any, payable pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C) has remained unpaid for not less than thirty days after the due date for payment thereof, the Treasurer or a person authorized by him to do so may apply to the court for an order that the certificate of registration of the club be forfeited or suspended.

“(7) For the purposes of subsection (6) of this section, the due date for the payment of an instalment of a percentage fee is the day on or before which, by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section twenty-four C, that instalment is required to be paid or the extended date (within the meaning of paragraph (b) of that subsection) whichever is the later.

“(8) On the making of an application under subsection (6) of this section, the court, after notice in writing to the committee of the club and after affording the committee an opportunity to be heard, may, by order, declare the certificate of registration of the club to be forfeited or may suspend the certificate until payment in full of the amount of the percentage fee or instalment of the percentage fee (together with the additional fee, if any, payable pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C) remaining unpaid.”.

court to forfeit licences in certain cases.

6 Section one hundred of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (1A) thereof and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

“(1A) If a percentage fee or an instalment of a percentage fee payable by the holder of a licence under this Act (together with the additional fee, if any, payable by the holder of the licence pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C) has remained unpaid for not less than thirty days after the due date for payment thereof, the Treasurer or a person authorized by him to do so may apply to the court for an order that the licence be forfeited or suspended.

“(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A) of this section, the due date for the payment of an instalment of a percentage fee is the day on or before which, by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section twenty-four C, that instalment is required to be paid or the extended date (within the meaning of paragraph (b) of that subsection) whichever is the later.

“(1C) On the making of an application under subsection (1A) of this section, the court, after notice in writing—

- (a) to the holder of the licence;
- (b) if the holder of the licence is not the owner of the premises, to the owner; and
- (c) to any person who is a mortgagee of the premises to which the licence relates, and after giving the holder of the licence, the owner, and the mortgagee (if any) an opportunity to be heard, may, by order, declare the licence to be forfeited or may suspend the licence until payment in full of the percentage fee or instalment of the percentage fee (together with the additional fee, if any, payable pursuant to subsection (3) of section twenty-four C) remaining unpaid.”.
