Qualifications of an elector.

2 Section forty-four A of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting from subsection (1) the word “or” occurring at the end of paragraph I.; and
- (b) by adding at the end of subsection (1) the following paragraphs:—

“ III. In the case of any municipality, if, being the spouse of a person qualified under paragraph I. or paragraph II. of this subsection, and being enrolled on an electoral roll for an Assembly division under the Electoral Act 1907 in respect of a place of living within that municipality and not otherwise qualified to vote at elections of councillors therein, he has claimed enrolment as provided in section forty-four D: or

IV. In the case of any municipality, if, having been a member of Her Majesty’s forces, as defined by section twenty-eight of the Constitution Act 1934, and having been discharged therefrom or ceased so to serve otherwise than through any fault or misconduct on his part, and being enrolled on an electoral roll for a Council division under the Electoral Act 1907 in respect of a place of living within that municipality and not otherwise qualified to vote at elections of councillors therein, he has claimed enrolment as provided in section forty-four E.”.

Claim for enrolment as spouse.

Cf. 7 Edw.
VII. No. 6, s. 29.

3 After section forty-four C of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:—

“ 44D. A claim for enrolment under paragraph III. of subsection (1) of section forty-four A shall—

- I. Be in the prescribed form:
- II. Show the claimant’s number on the relevant Assembly roll:
- III. Show the name of the elector as whose spouse he claims and an address by which that elector may be identified in the council’s assessment roll, valuation roll, or record of occupiers:
- IV. Be signed by the claimant with his personal signature and attested by a prescribed person, who shall sign his name as witness in his own handwriting:

and

v. Be sent to the council clerk.

“44E. A claim for enrolment under paragraph IV. of subsection (1) of section forty-four A shall—

- IV. Be signed by the claimant in his personal signature and attested by a prescribed person who shall sign his name as witness in his own hand writing:
and
- v. Be sent to the council clerk.

“44F. If any person enrolled under paragraph III. of subsection (1) of section forty-four A ceases to be the spouse of the person as whose spouse he has claimed enrolment, he shall, within one month next following, give notice thereof in the prescribed manner and form to the council clerk, who shall then remove his name from the voters' roll.”

Change of marital status.

4 Section forty-five of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:—

Scale of voting.

“(2) Any elector who votes at an election by virtue only of paragraph III. or paragraph IV. of subsection (1) of section forty-four A shall have one vote only.”

5 Section forty-seven of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (2) and substituting therefor the following subsection:—

Voters' Roll.

“(2) A roll prepared under subsection (1) of this section shall be called the Voter's Roll and shall show in the alphabetical order of their surnames the names of—

- I. All persons appearing on the assessment roll or record of occupiers, as the case may be, as owners or occupiers of property within the municipality:
- II. All persons—
 - (a) Who have claimed enrolment under paragraph III. of subsection (1) of section forty-four A:

- (b) Whose names appear on an Assembly roll as indicated in their claims for enrolment or on a subsequent Assembly roll in respect of the same addresses as given in the rolls on which their claims were based: and
- (c) Who do not appear from some Assembly roll, assessment roll, valuation roll, or record of occupiers to have ceased to be the spouses of persons as the spouses of whom enrolment was claimed: and
- III. All persons who have claimed enrolment under paragraph IV. of that subsection and whose names appear on an electoral roll for a Council division as indicated in their claims for enrolment or on a subsequent electoral roll for a Council division in respect of the same addresses as given in the rolls on which their claims were based.”.
