

LAUNCESTON MARINE BOARD LOAN.

No. 64 of 1951.

AN ACT to authorise the Marine Board of Launceston to borrow a sum of money, not exceeding £500,000, for the purpose of meeting the cost of construction of certain works in connection with the Port of Launceston and for purposes connected therewith; to authorise the Governor to guarantee the payment of interest on any moneys so borrowed; and to provide for matters incidental thereto.

[20 November, 1951.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and incorporation.
Cf. 1 Edw.
VIII. No. 10.
s. 1.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Launceston Marine Board Loan Act 1951.

(2) This Act shall be incorporated and read as one with the *Marine Act 1921, in this Act referred to as “the Principal Act.”

Interpretation.
Ibid., s. 2.

2 In this Act, the expression “the Board” means the Marine Board of Launceston.

Borrowing powers.
Ibid., s. 8 (1), (2).

3—(1) The Board may borrow, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph III. of section eighty-four of the Principal Act, any sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of £500,000, upon such terms and conditions as are approved by the Governor.

(2) The power conferred on the Board by this section may be exercised notwithstanding that the interest for any year on any sum to be so borrowed exceeds one-third of the ordinary net revenue of the Board, calculated as provided by paragraph III. of section eighty-four of the Principal Act.

Application of moneys.
Ibid., s. 3 (3)

4 The moneys borrowed by the Board under the authority of this Act shall be applied for the purposes of—

- (a) improving and increasing the berthage and wharfage accommodation at the Port of Launceston and for the purposes of any works incidental thereto;

- (b) dredging or removing sand or other material from the bed of the port and the reclamation of land within the port;
- (c) the construction of sheds for the accommodation of goods and passengers;
- (d) the construction of road and railway facilities;
- (e) the construction and provision of facilities and equipment for the handling of bulk cargoes or specialised cargoes;
- (f) the purchase of such mechanical equipment as the Board may consider necessary for the better and more expeditious handling of cargo;
- (g) generally carrying out, undertaking, or constructing any other works which the Board may consider necessary within its jurisdiction; and
- (h) the purchase or hire of all necessary equipment, plant, and tools to enable the Board to carry out any works under this section.

5—(1) In order to facilitate the borrowing by the Board of the moneys authorised to be borrowed under this Act, the Governor may guarantee the payment to any person lending any of those moneys of the interest on the principal sum so borrowed; but so that, if the rate of interest on any moneys so borrowed exceeds three per cent per annum, any guarantee given under this section shall be limited to so much of the interest thereon as does not exceed three per cent per annum.

Power of Governor to guarantee payment of interest.
Ibid., s. 4.

(2) Every debenture or other instrument issued or executed in respect of any moneys borrowed under the authority of this Act shall have endorsed thereon a statement setting out the extent to which the interest secured thereby is guaranteed by the Governor and that statement shall be signed by the Governor.

(3) Debentures or other instruments issued or executed by the Board in respect of such borrowing shall be exempt from payment of duty under the *Stamp Duties Act 1931.

6—(1) In any case in which default has been made in payment by the Board, to any person who is entitled to receive it, or of any interest the payment of which has been guaranteed by the Governor under this Act, the Treasurer shall, upon demand by that person and without any authority other than this Act, pay out of the Consolidated Revenue to that person the amount of the interest so guaranteed in respect of which default has been made.

Provisions relating to payment of interest payable under guarantee.
Ibid., s. 5.

(2) The Board shall, upon demand being made on it by the Treasurer therefor, pay to the Treasurer the amount of any interest paid by him in accordance with this section together with interest thereon at the rate of four pounds per cent per annum, calculated from the day of payment by the Treasurer until repayment to him by the Board.

(3) All moneys received by the Treasurer from the Board under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid by him into the Consolidated Revenue.

Moneys owing by Board to Treasurer to be a first charge on the property, &c., of the Board. Ibid., s. 6.

7—(1) All moneys owing by the Board to the Treasurer on account of any payments made by him under section six shall be a charge upon the real and personal property and assets of the Board until those moneys have been fully paid.

(2) The Treasurer may, at any time, give to the Board one month's notice in writing of his intention to enforce payment of any moneys owing to him by the Board, and, if at the expiration of the notice those moneys remain, or any part thereof remains, unpaid, the Governor may appoint a receiver of the revenues and other income of the Board.

(3) The provisions of sections twenty-one, twenty-two, and twenty-three of the *State Loans to Local Bodies Act 1929, so far as they are applicable, shall apply to and in respect of a receiver appointed under this section and to and in respect of any moneys owing by the Board to the Treasurer, as if the receiver had been appointed under that Act in respect of a local body as therein defined, and as if the moneys had been moneys overdue and unpaid by the Board to the Treasurer in respect of a loan granted to the Board under that Act.
