

determination or abandonment of the appeal, the Commission may, by notice in writing, direct the employer of the apprentice to deduct the amount of the penalty imposed on the apprentice, either in one sum or in such instalments as the Commission may direct, from the wages of the apprentice.

“(6) An employer who is required by a direction given under this section to deduct any amount from the wages paid to an apprentice shall comply with that direction and shall, within fourteen days after those wages fall due to be paid, pay to the Commission a sum equivalent to the amount so required to be deducted, and any sum required so to be paid to the Commission that is not so paid may be recovered as a debt due to it from the employer.

“(7) A payment made by an employer under subsection (6) is a valid discharge to him as against the apprentice to the extent of the amount paid.

“(8) Any sums paid to or recovered by the Commission under this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue.”.

5 Section twenty-eight of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from sub-paragraph (vi) of paragraph (d) of subsection (2) the word “four” and substituting therefor the word “eight”. Regulations.
