

Interpretation.

2 Section four of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:—

“(2) Except for the purpose of any deduction required by the regulations to be made from salary where the cost of living falls below a prescribed figure, any reference in this Act to the salary payable or assigned to any officer shall be construed as including the amount of the allowance (if any) to be included in the salary of that officer pursuant to any determination of the Board under subsection (10) of section twenty.”.

Classification of Service.

3 Section twenty of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsections:—

“(10) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act, the Board may, for the purposes of any classification which is notified in the Gazette after the commencement of this subsection, determine that the salary or salaries assigned by the classification to any officer or class of officers or to officers generally shall include such amount or amounts as may be equal to the whole or such proportion as the Board may determine of the appropriate cost of living allowance (if any) for the time being payable to that officer or class of officers or to officers generally.

(11) Any amount to be included in the salary of any officer pursuant to any determination of the Board under subsection (10) of this section may, if the Board so determines, be calculated, for the purposes of that determination, to the nearest pound per annum.

(12) In subsection (10) of this section, the expression ‘cost of living allowance’ means an allowance payable pursuant to any regulations made under or for the purposes of paragraph X. of subsection (1) of section seventy-six.”.
